

A.O. Smith plant starting second production line

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

In addition to a manufacturing line to produce front-end assemblies for the 1986 Ford Taurus automobiles, the Granite City A.O. Smith Corp. plant has begun preparations for a second manufacturing line to produce the frames for a 1986 model Dodge light truck, it was announced Wednesday by Jack M. Birchill, vice president of corporate communication for A.O. Smith's corporate headquarters in Milwaukee.

"We have obtained a contract for production of a fully assembled frame for a Dodge light truck which should go into production toward the end of 1985, approximately November. It will employ about 150 more persons than the Ford Taurus line," he noted.

ASSEMBLY OF the Ford projection line is underway at the Granite City plant and should employ about 150 persons by May 1985. Pilot production on the Ford line is scheduled to begin by the end of this year. By full production toward the end of 1985, the Ford line should employ approximately 300 workers and the new Dodge line another 150, for a total of about 450 employees at the Granite City plant, Birchill said.

The good news also could create a larger market for steel from the Granite City Steel plant. Birchill said all steel will be purchased according to competitive prices, but he predicted that much of the steel should be obtained locally.

Birchill declined to comment on rumors that negotiations may be underway for a third line here, possibly a line for General Motors cars. Asked if the two lines will fill the 500,000-square-foot plant, Birchill said, "No. We may add something later on."

PLANT MANAGER over both the Ford and Dodge lines will be Stanley F. Lindquist, 53, who was named vice president of operations here earlier this year.

Lindquist says the Ford production lines, utilizing about 35-robot-controlled lines with inspection systems is "state of the art." He said the entire plant will be among the most modern in the country when completed.

Lindquist was not available this week to answer questions about the Dodge line. Birchill said some of the robots may operate on both lines, but some new presses and other equipment will be required for the Dodge line. No new rail spurs, building additions or other major changes will be required for the second line, he said.

APPLICATIONS for work at the plant are being taken through the Job Service in American Village Shopping Center.

There has been no production at the local plant since April 8, 1980, when the United Auto Workers began a strike which lasted until the plant was closed Sept. 30, 1980. A.O. Smith officials insisted it was a lack of orders, and not the strike, which caused the plant to be closed.

All ties to the former union have been broken and the plant will not recognize seniority rates or other contracts for the Auto Workers.

"EMPLOYEES are free to choose a union if they wish to, but we are not going to start with any contractual agreement with any union," Birchill stressed last year when it was announced the plant would reopen.

GC HS pupils appeal for passage of both school referendum issues

In addition to the many Forum letters the Press-Record has received regarding the proposed bond issue and referendum to support the Granite City Schools, numerous letters have been received from Granite City High School students, letting adults know why they feel passage of the issues next Tuesday is important.

Some said school would not be the same without extracurricular activities. Some said elimination of sports could cost athletes valuable scholarships. Some were concerned for themselves; others were concerned for their younger brothers or sisters and students yet to come into the upper grades.

SPACE restrictions make it impossible to print all of the letters, but 'I think that we should be the ones to vote—Cindi Schaffner portions of the letters, showing the students' concerns, follow.

"I feel very sorry for this whole community if the Nov. 6 bond issues do not pass. There will be nothing left of our Granite City, which most of us grew up in. School will not be school without things such as extracurricular activities," wrote senior Cindi Schaffner.

She added, "I, myself, want to remember high school as the greatest time of my life... (Future students) will not know what real high school is like. School is not school without soccer games, band, swing choir and all of the different clubs. I hope that the people voting for the issue can see our point of view. We will be the ones to suffer. If it was up to me, I think that we should be the ones to vote."

SENIOR Tracey Hull wrote, "Many people thought the consolidation of North and South (high schools) was bad, but I came from North and I've grown to love this school. There have been a lot of good times here that I hope the rest of the Granite City kids get the chance to enjoy."

Tom Bladdick, a freshman, wrote, "I know there are a lot of grandmas and grandpas in the district who can't afford the increased taxes, but we can't afford not to get an education. Grandparents helped their children get an education. Now, won't they please help their grandchildren get theirs?"

Belinda Abernathy, a senior, wrote, "This is our school. The people of our community should get together and support it. We, the students, will be the ones hurt if the bond issue fails. Most of our student body can't vote, so we need to depend on our parents to vote 'yes' on

No ambulances in Chouteau

By DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

Chouteau Township residents are without ambulance service due to a disagreement between Roger Campbell of Campbell Ambulance Service, the most recent provider of ambulance services, and the Chouteau Town Board.

Campbell addressed the township board Monday night, stating he could no longer provide service to the Chouteau area unless a signed contract between his company and the township board is put in effect.

A CLAUSE in the contract, submitted to the board at an earlier meeting, stated that if Campbell is unable to obtain full payment from township resident who have utilized Campbell's services, the responsibility to pay becomes the township's.

The town board trustees unanimously said they could not agree to such a contract when some of the residents can afford to pay, but refuse.

"We are only obligated to pay for those residents who cannot pay," Walter "Dick" Sparks, township supervisor, said.

CAMPBELL said, "I have only sent you bills for four people when I could not collect and I don't think (Continued on Page 6)

GC schools may run out of money

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Granite City schools will do their best to remain in operation but could run out of funds as early as February, according to School Board President David Partney.

His comments were voiced on the eve of the school election forum, set for 7 tonight in the high school auditorium. Moderator is Leo Kouzen and plans call for the forum to last from 7 to 8:30. The public is being invited to attend, comment and ask questions.

CHAIRMAN OF CITIZENS for Continued Education, Mack G. Johnson will urge "Yes" votes Nov. 6 on issuing working cash fund bonds and increasing the education fund tax rate limit. Microphones will be set up in the audience to permit voters to voice their views.

Partney outlined school problems and said it is an "absolute necessity" to vote yes on the two school proposals next Tuesday.

Although the assessment base itself has increased, and tax levies have risen, District Nine has had no increase in its education fund rate since 1969, Partney noted, adding:

"The board over the past few years has instituted drastic cuts, including building closings, personnel reductions, rigid administrative cutbacks and other effective budget reductions.

"WE SIMPLY CANNOT function without the passage of these two proposals."

"As everyone knows, the cost of living has increased over the past 15 years. Every homeowner has experienced large utility increases. Other major items also have increased with inflation."

"Examination of the tax rates of this metropolitan area's largest school districts shows our district ranks tenth in student population."

"Among these 10 there is a substantial difference between our combined school rate of $3.499 per $100 valuation and the other nine districts, ranging from $3.38 to $5.06. We are very much on the low side."

"WE HAVE a $5 million borrowing commitment from local banking institutions, but it will take another $2.6 million to finish this school year—$2.6 million which we have not been able to secure."

"Our business manager says that, with no additional borrowing, our money would run out about the end of January 1985."

"The Board of Education requested that the administration do a study of further possible cuts—in an attempt to help the district survive (Continued on Page 6)

Cable TV progressing

Venice residents should have cable television available by the end of December and Madison residents should have service by mid-November, Lon Carruth, general manager of South-Western Cable TV, Ltd., informed the Venice City Council Tuesday night.

Only severe weather problems in the next month could delay the project from its targeted completion date, with construction possibly finished by Dec. 1, Carruth said.

UNDERGROUND construction in Venice will begin Monday, or as soon as Illinois Bell acknowledges receipt of a check signed Tuesday by Carruth. (Continued on Page 6)

MESD sewage treatment rates increase today

By SUSANNE INDELICATO
of the Press-Record

Beginning today, Metro-East Sanitary District customers served by the Lansdowne Sewage Treatment Plant will pay more for their sewage services.

Last August, the MESD board approved a 350 percent rate hike for those customers who reside in Madison, Venice, Brooklyn, National City, Washington Park, Caseyville, Fairmont City, East St. Louis and Stites and Canteen townships.

ALTHOUGH THE rate increase goes into effect today, MESD Executive Director Walter "Shang" Greathouse said the customers won't pay higher bills until the January billing.

More than 6,000 customers are served by the Lansdowne plant and, of those, 49 percent were paying a minimum bill of $1.95 per month. Today, that payment raises to a minimum of $6.82 per month. In addition, customers are being billed every two months instead of every three.

Greathouse has said the rate increase will enable the MESD to raise the $1.5 million needed to tie in a regional treatment system in two years. The additional $4 million cost of such a project will come from a state grant.

THE ILLINOIS Environmental Protection Agency has cited the Lansdowne Treatment Plant in the past for improper operation and maintenance. The plant provides for primary treatment of effluent.

At the time of the citation, the state told MESD that it could either build a new plant with primary and secondary sewage treatment at a cost of $1.2 million or join a regional system that would be serviced by the Granite City sewage treatment plant at a cost of $5.5 million. The Granite City plant already has secondary treatment. MESD has opted for the least expensive alternative, with 75 percent of the expense covered by grants.

Greathouse emphasizes that the rate increase will bring Lansdowne sewage treatment rates in line with those of neighboring districts, such as Granite City, which charges approximately $6 per month for sewage treatment.

FIGHTING CHARGES AGAINST MAN, GIRL

Officers arrived at a disturbance during the weekend in the 2600 block of Kirkpatrick Homes to find between 25 and 30 people gathered there. Several persons were shouting at one another and accusing each other of hitting them, reports said.

When a fight erupted between Kenneth G. Householder, 20, of 403 Kirkpatrick Homes, and a 15-year-old girl, they were separated and arrested. Both were charged with fighting.

The group was dispersed. Householder and the juvenile girl later were released on notices to appear in court.

WOMAN DRIVER IS HURT IN 3-VEHICLE MISHAP

Debra D. James, 24, of 4046 Bruene Ave., sustained a minor injury during the weekend, when her car was struck from the rear by an auto operated by Elizabeth R. Kriesnok, 23, of 1115 Reynolds St., Madison, in the 2600 block of Nameoki Road.

Mrs. James' vehicle was halted behind an auto operated by Debra J. David, 31, of 5192 Nameoki Road, which was stopped waiting to make a left turn into a beauty supply firm at 2610 Nameoki Road, reports said.

The impact pushed the James vehicle forward into Mrs. David's car. All three vehicles were in the south-bound lanes.

School district receives nutrition training grant

Madison Community Unit District 12 has received a grant from the Nutrition Education and Training Program (NETP) of the Illinois State Board of Education to help students of grades four and five become aware of the relationship between food, health and growth.

The program was developed by Mary Whitley, nutrition advocate and teacher of grade four, and Dolores Folkerts, curriculum director of the district.

Goals of the program are to help students recognize the relationship of health and growth to the foods they eat; make wise decisions in selecting food for good health, and recognize and respect ethnicity of food as a integral part of the world's cultural environment.

JON R. LYERLA has been appointed executive director of Eden Village in Glen Carbon, effective Jan. 2, 1985. The nursing complex has 120 beds and a retirement center of 80 apartments and six duplexes. Lyerla is married to the former Betty Baker of Granite City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker of this city. Phone contacts boost swim pool

By DONNA KIMBRO of the Press-Record

A progress report on campaign programs to promote the success of the forthcoming bond issue to be voted on in the Nov. 6 election was the main topic of discussion at the Granite City Park District board meeting last week.

Park Commissioner John "Jeff" Worthen conducted the meeting in the absence of President George Sykes, who was hospitalized. Worthen reviewed speaking engagements at area organizations and groups he has completed and Nancy Sanders also noted the community clubs she addressed on the same subject.

A CITIZENS' committee, to promote the passage of the bond issue, is conducting a telephone survey and is actively engaged in distributing informational brochures to each homeowner, Jim Donohue, a member of the committee, informed the board.

Also of interest was the receipt of a check for $1,573 received from the city of Granite City from the Granite City Housing Authority in lieu of 1983 taxes.

John Mink, treasurer, reported that real estate tax monies are expected within two weeks and, therefore, the board may not have to issue any more anticipation warrants.

NANCY SANDERS, chairman of the engineering committee, submitted a report recommending placement of a 1957 case tractor, 1966 dump truck and two Howard riding mowers on a surplus list, since they are not usable at the present time.

Due to the financial position of the park board, Miss Sanders announced the striping and refinishing work on the gym floor at Lincoln Place Community Center will be delayed until next year. She also noted roof repair work on the ice rink is continuing and the roofs are fixed at the Harold Brown Recreation Center, with the exception of spreading gravel on the top. Ceiling tiles damaged by water and painting in the interior of the center also are completed, Miss Sanders said.

Barry Loman, chairman of the municipal relations committee, announced a Veterans' Day dance will be conducted Nov. 9 at the Harold Brown Center from 7 to 9 p.m. and is open to the public.

AFTER AN executive session to discuss recommendation and suggestions from the park employees, the board agreed to meet with the employees again on Jan. 9 to continue the discussions.

In other business, a winter hiring list was approved with Mike Hassler, as assistant ice rink manager, Raymond Jones, skate room, Connie Williams, concessions, and skate guards (upon passing skating test) George Diak, Brady Ryan, Robin Keel, David McCormick, Claudia Tonsor, Christine Loyet and Dave Williams. Kevin Curtis will be a basketball aide and Joe DeGonia, Lisa Sheikh and Pam Dudak, gymnastics aides.

David Nolan, director of parks and recreation, informed the board that the October rental fee for the ice rink has proved worthwhile. To date, it was rented 87 hours for $2,905, an increase from last year's total of $2,800.

HE ALSO received approval for his recommendation to offer free skating sessions on Mondays through Fridays from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for senior citizens of the park district with other adults to be charged 75 cents.

Special skating sessions will be offered to students on Nov. 23, Dec. 24 and Feb. 12 from 1 to 3 p.m. on each of the dates at a cost of 25 cents.

Board members also agreed with Nolan to plan and arrange a New Year's Eve party for park district youths from 9 p.m. to midnight. There will be hot dogs, snacks, dips served and noise makers and hats will be provided. The estimated cost of the project is $113 short of paying all expenses, it was reported by Nolan.

THE SILVER Dollar City trip to Missouri netted a profit of $199, but the fall foliage trip, due to some cancellations, fell $113 short of paying all expenses, it was reported by Nolan.

Tentative plans are being finalized for a sports award banquet on Monday, Nov. 19, at which time Granite Sheet Metal will receive the 1984 appreciation award and service awards will be presented to Leo Konzen, Mercy Mendoza, Dennis McBride, Jim Donahue and Gary Grandfield.

Letters to managers and special guests are being mailed and cost of tickets is set at $2, it was announced.

ALLEGED CAR IN YARD, CHARGE DRIVER DUI

Receiving a report of a man screaming and yelling in the street in the 100 block of Briarcliff Drive late last week, officers responded and alleged finding a 1975 auto stuck in mud in the front yard of a dwelling and Donald E. Hais Jr., 21, of 4273 E. Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, staggering about the street.

Hais allegedly refused to take a breathalyzer test and declined to provide information at the station. He was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and was released upon posting a $102 cash bond.

$4,500 TOOLS ARE TAKEN

Alan Fecht of Carlyle said last week a large quantity of carpenter tools, valued at $4,500, was stolen from his pickup truck while it was parked in the 3100 block of Wayne Avenue.

Area students to attend symphony

Fourth grade students of the Madison, Venice and St. Mary-St. Mark schools again will attend a St. Louis Symphony Youth Concert, due to the generosity of civic-minded citizens "concerned about an introduction to the enriching world of great concert music for the youth in Madison and Venice," a spokesman said.

Organizations donating money were: Madison Progressive Women's Club, Frankie Griggs, president, and Althair Sands, treasurer; St. Mary-St. Mark PTA, Casey Krakowicki, president, Mary Ann Georges, secretary, and Gerry Mendez, treasurer; Madison Junior Service, Diane Judzik, president, and Margaret Lee, public relations director; and Madison Parents' Club, Anna Potts, president, and Barbara Champion, treasurer.

The five organizations donated enough to purchase tickets for each fourth grade student and chaperone in Madison, Venice and St. Mary's schools to hear "one of the two best symphonies in the United States, according to Time Magazine," the spokesman added.

Dolores Folkerts, curriculum director of Madison Community Unit District 12, said, "The people of Madison and Venice are some of the finest in the country and have come through once more. Those who donated are an inspiration for all to see."

"They are visionary not only in backing education as a hope of the future but also realizing that all who live in the Madison and Venice area are tied together with a mutual bond. Each club member has perceived that all citizens in the two cities are interrelated, with mutual respect and concern."

"This imaginative group recognizes that our children are our greatest asset and must be nourished mentally, morally, emotionally, physically and aesthetically. Great pride by each citizen can be taken because of the combined support of the public and parochial schools in both cities."

Half the fourth grade students at Louis Baer will attend a "Tales of the Supernatural" concert on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 9:30 a.m. The remaining half will attend "Bringing on the Brass" on Wednesday, Feb. 20, at 9:30 a.m.

Students at Venice Grade School and St. Mary's will attend the "Simply Beethoven" concert on Wednesday, March 20, at 9:30 a.m.

DUI charged after St. Clair mishap

Sheila K. Revelle, 47, of 171 Briarview Lane, was heading west on St. Clair Avenue, waiting to turn into the southbound lanes of Nameoki Road, when her auto allegedly was struck by a pickup truck which turned east onto St. Clair from Nameoki Road early this week.

Robert Lee Johnson, 30, of Jadin, Mo., driver of the pickup, was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol. He declined to take a breathalyzer test or answer questions, reports alleged.

Johnson also was charged with unlawful use of a weapon and illegal transportation of alcohol after an empty .22-caliber rifle and a partially empty quart bottle of beer allegedly were found in the front seat of the pickup. Five live rounds of ammunition were in his pocket. It was alleged.

Charles E. Rose, 20, of Edwardsville, a passenger in Johnson's truck, also was taken into custody when it was determined a Collinsville Police Department warrant alleging contempt of court was active. He was released to a Collinsville officer a short time later.

NAMED IN TWO WARRANTS.

Paul C. Parker, 50, of 1433 Madison Ave. was arrested there last week on two warrants alleging disorderly conduct.

TICKET ISSUED TO DRIVER IN PEDESTRIAN ACCIDENT

Robert J. Wiley Jr., 45, of 114B Roosevelt Drive, Madison, was cited for leaving the scene of an accident involving personal injury last week after his truck hit another man.

According to reports from the Madison County Sheriff's Department, Wiley's truck allegedly struck John Williams, 21, of 213 Hare St., Eagle Park Acres, as Williams was crossing Watson Street near Roosevelt Drive. Reports state that the impact threw Williams onto the hood of Wiley's truck. After Williams fell off the hood, Wiley allegedly left the scene of the accident.

Williams suffered minor injuries in the incident.

TWO TEENAGE THIEVES RUN FROM SHOE STORE

Two pairs of leather boots valued at $100 were stolen by two girls, both about 16 years old, who ran from Payless Shoe Store, 3020 Madison Ave., with the boots, during the weekend.

The pair ran across Madison Avenue toward the high school tennis courts, reports said.

One girl was described as 5 feet, 9 inches tall and weighing about 130 pounds, with shoulder-length brown hair. The second girl was about 5 feet, 10 inches tall, weighed about 140 pounds and had short dark hair.

Election decisions approaching

Following are the Press-Record's comments on Nov. 6, 1984, election issues—with Democrats designated as D and Republicans as R.

U.S. PRESIDENT—Gains are being made under the leadership of Ronald Reagan (R) and we are hopeful of further economic resurgence if he wins the second term, for which he is heavily favored.

National defense has received needed upgrading since 1980, the spread of Communism has been slowed, interest rates are down dramatically and income taxes have been cut.

Unemployment remains too high locally, but the local auto parts plant is preparing to reopen and their are encouraging signs in other industries. The national debt and deficit are continuing concerns, but inflation—described as the "cruellest tax of all"—has been reduced substantially by Mr. Reagan, helping everyone.

U.S. SENATOR—In a close race between two exceptional legislators, Charles Percy (R) merits reelection. He could work closely with President Reagan in further bolstering U.S. security and prosperity. Sen. Percy was instrumental in funding the re-equipping of the A.O. Smith Corp. plant here.

Cong. Paul Simon (D) could be a fine senator. We disagree with some of his stands, such as his opposition to indexing that plan is scheduled to end "income tax bracket creep." Simon impressively represented this community in the Illinois General Assembly for 14 years and is fully capable of rising to the challenge if elected to the U.S. Senate.

CONGRESSMAN (21st Cong. District)—To those who are grateful to the 40-year incumbent for his admirable record and feel he can still serve well, Melvin Price (D) is the odds-on choice for a 21st term. To those who favor an immediate change, Robert Gaffner (R) would be a well-informed lawmaker and a regional economic catalyst. We are impressed with Gaffner, who has come a long way politically since he challenged Price two years ago.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE (111th Rep. District)—Sam Wolf (D), Granite City, now a full-time legislator, has diverse experience at Springfield. One of the most active of the region's representatives, he skillfully heads the House-Senate Legislative Council, the House Personnel and Pensions Committee and the House-Senate Staff Caucus. Wolf, understandably, is unopposed. He deserves a large vote of confidence.

CIRCUIT COURT CLERK—Willard V. Portell (D), veteran of 24 consecutive years in this key office, is unopposed for a seventh term and deserves reelection.

RECORD OF DEEDS—Robert Saksa (R), Godfrey, a retired Army colonel with an economics degree, has long experience in personnel, logistics and record management. He has outlined plans for improved services, including faster progress in computerizing files. A survivor of 32 months as a prisoner of war, he has served in the office of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff. While we revere the incumbent, Ronald "Rink" Lucas (D), who also is mayor of Maryville, Saksa may be able to further modernize the recorder's office.

STATE'S ATTORNEY—There have been many problems during Don Weber's first term, but his aggressiveness has put many criminals behind prison bars, helping make Madison County a safe place to live, work, play and shop—in sharp contrast to many places in the U.S. He also serves as a watchdog on the way county governmental offices are operated, although a bit overzealous at times.

We like the proposal of Richard Allen (D) to put a warrant office in each major metropolitan area, saving police agencies much travel time.

This race poses a difficult decision for voters, but we feel Weber's overall record as a prosecutor is unmatched in its depth, variety, innovations, technology, perseverance and success.

CORONER—There could be advantages in having a medical doctor, Edward Braud (R), as county coroner but Mrs. Dallas Burke (D) has many years of experience in the post and has appointed able deputies in the Quad-City area. We endorse Mrs. Burke.

COUNTY AUDITOR—The incumbent, Arthur "Pete" Fields (D), is highly efficient. His opponent, an certified public accountant, also could do a good job. Fields has earned voters' support with his alert performance as auditor and his role in the county's concerted effort to avoid deficits. Fields has earned our backing.

COUNTY BOARD MEMBER (Dist. 22)—Although he is opposed by a write-in candidate, Herbert "Junior" Milton (D) has no ballot foe. Milton has 12 years of board experience, excelling in the difficult task of negotiations chairman, and also heads the county's Buildings Committee. He deserves a large vote of confidence.

COUNTY BOARD MEMBER (Dist. 23)—We favor Donald Garrett (D) on the basis of his experience on the Madison City Council and Madison Board of Education. As a black, he could bring a new dimension to the 29-member legislative body.

COUNTY BOARD MEMBER (Dist. 24)—Frank Dutko (D), who has held the position for two two-year terms, is unopposed for a four-year term. He chairs the License and Liquor Committee and also serves conscientiously on the Right-of-Way, Personnel and Sewer committees.

ILLINOIS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—Yes (Ballot number 18) on tax exemption for property of veterans' and patriotic groups.

GRANITE CITY SCHOOL BOND ISSUE—Yes (ballot number 19) on the issue of $6.6 million in working cash fund bonds (estimated net cost is a 40-cent tax rate for 10 years). We feel this, in conjunction with the school tax rate (number 22) are two of the most important issues before voters in recent years.

GRANITE CITY NATURAL GAS REFERENCE—Yes (Punch 18) to roll back home heating bills and limit future gas price increases.

GRANITE CITY PARK PROPOSITION—Yes (Punch 183) on constructing a new swimming pool (estimated 11-cent rate for bonds).

GRANITE CITY SCHOOL TAX RATE—Yes (Punch 23) on changing the rate limit of the education fund by 40 cents, from $2.55 to $2.95 per $100 valuation.

percent oppose deficit spending.

Ninety percent oppose illegal immigration and amnesty for illegals. Eighty-five percent oppose forced racial busing.

A majority also is found on the opposite side of the fence from the establishment in these issues: Registration of firearms; ERA; recognition of Taiwan; abandoning Afghanistan; intervention in foreign wars; forced fluoridation of public water supplies; capital punishment; foreign aid; financial support of Communist countries; Israeli control of Congress and the White House; underwriting of the Israeli economy; bailing out private banks with tax funds; lenient law enforcement; filthy T.V.; dope and pornography.

Wondering if the majority still rules

To the Editor:

If this is a democracy, then why are the people and the rulers of America on opposite sides of all the important issues, and why doesn't the majority view rule?

Ninety-nine percent oppose high or higher taxes. Ninety-nine percent oppose high or higher interest rates. Ninety-eight percent oppose inflation. Ninety-six percent opposed the Panama Canal pay away. Ninety-six

Vote no and force schools to economize

To the Editor:

The main concern to the School Board, it seems, is taxes. Their main fear is, "We've not raised taxes since 1969."

Maybe there is good reason. Who would need to, when the county imposes a multiplier on your tax bill and automatically gets a raise to the exact percent of the multiplier—this year a big 10 percent.

Their reasoning for going into debt has never been stated—except that we spent more money than we took in, and now we ask you taxpayers to bail us out of our mess.

One member even stated that the senior citizens and others on fixed income should do without a few things. With that bright idea, why didn't he as a board member suggest that to the schools five years ago?

I, for one, refuse to eat less or take less medicine for the sake of the school board's blunders.

I think a big "no" vote would let the board know exactly that the taxpayers are fed up with their excess spending.

I personally think that if the board can't run a good school system with $25 million to $26 million, why should I think that they could with another million or two?

They ask for a bond issue and a tax increase. After the second year of the tax they increase, I've never read that money.

Was this a reverse blackmail to the taxpayers, so the board would have to give raises to the workers and extra to hire teachers?

When will the educational fund tax increase be taken off? These questions were never dealt with while they were running around looting the taxpayers.

They have stated, taxpayers, if you don't vote yes, your property values will go down and you can't sell your house. What makes the difference? If they tax your house, and you can't pay the taxes, no one else will buy the house, either, since the taxes are too high.

Taxpayers, take a look around at all the houses for sale and the businesses that are leaving Granite City. There must be a reason. Add more taxes and you will see more people leave this city.

As for the state taking control of our school district, maybe that would be the best thing:

To put the school board on parole for one year and let them know their responsibility is to the taxpayers to run a sound, balanced-budget school system.

It might mean they would have to stop all the conventions and the extra they have.

But after one year, they would understand. After all, they have proven to me they don't know how to balance the budget.

The best thing we taxpayers can do is vote no on all the tax increases and bond issues this election. I strongly urge a big no vote.

Organ transplants

In view of the recent implantation of a baboon's heart into a human baby, local residents were asked Wednesday afternoon if they believe the organs of animals should be transplanted into humans.

Henry Stockman, Granite City
"No, I don't. It's all right to prolong life (with an animal organ transplant) if it buys time for the recipient until a human organ can be found. But I don't think they should do it until it's a proven fact."

Darla Anderson, Granite City

Wants voters to retain Judge Johnson

To the Editor:

It would seem to me that Dr. Edward Ragsdale, chairman of the Madison County Republican Party, is so desperate that he will stop at nothing in attacking a very competent judge, Circuit Judge William Johnson.

Dr. Ragsdale was quoted in one paper that Judge Johnson would have to be given an F or even an Ffor his record, and even went so far as to mention Raymond Stillwell as a capable Republican replacement.

Well, Raymond Stillwell is probably qualified to make a good judge and most likely will get his chance, in time. But it should not be at the expense of Judge Johnson.

A poll of the Illinois State Bar Association graded Judge Johnson as qualified to serve.

I believe the Illinois State Bar Association is a much more qualified to evaluate a judge than Dr. Ragsdale.

I urge all my friends, neighbors and co-workers to vote yes on Nov. 6 to retain Judge Johnson, a good judge.

Decay and poverty cause voter to doubt president's 'springtime in a shining city'

To the Editor:

I am sending to various media in response to a form letter, received yesterday from the Reagan-Bush election team and mailed in Westmont, Ill.

The letter states that four years ago, Mr. Reagan, you made various promises to the American people and that you have kept those promises.

My dream of an America as a "shining city on a hill" is still very much a dream. For many it is still a nightmare.

Granite City lies in a Mississippi River flood plain. The steel foundry where I worked for 40 years has been shut down for several years and there still is no sign of reopening.

Our other steel plant is in the process of being taken over by the Japanese and you can be sure there will be more unemployed eventually.

Our school system is bankrupt and our taxes are increasing. In the next 15 years or less, I will be forced to pay for my home the second time, just for the privilege of living in it.

Granite City severs and streets are falling apart and there are never enough funds to maintain them. For parents and grandparents, there is a constant fear of the drug problem. Such is our shining city.

Published statistics do not agree that growth in federal government has decreased. The attempt to place a discredited environmental official in a federal position is a good example of wasting tax dollars; $700 co-felons and $500 hammers are others.

Taxes were reduced, which helped the rich but meant nothing for those of us living on pensions and Social Security.

Six million more people may have found jobs, but just as many have lost the ones they had, and unemployment is as high as it ever was.

Yes, state our nation is at peace, but during your term of office we lost 24 Marines, killed like sitting ducks, in Lebanon. This happened in spite of all the warning you had about their situation.

Our Navy then lobbed shells into Lebanese villages not knowing whether they were killing innocent women or children.

We then invaded Grenada "to save 500 medical students," using the Army, Navy and Air Force. If this wasn't an act of war, then I must have been in a peace mission in Germany during World War II.

The full story of our losses and costs in Grenada is still to be told.

We have had several experiences, the major one being Vietnam, that tell us we cannot impose our system of government in foreign lands by military force.

People who have been oppressed for generations will continue to struggle for freedom as we think we know it.

Even the Russians have found this true in Afghanistan, in Poland, where the Reagan administration has been no help, in all of East Europe and, I am sure, among their own people.

There can hardly be a "springtime of hope for America" when our school-age children live in fear of nuclear war, and college students vote for a supply of cyanide tablets.

And when two out of three children will have tried drugs by the time they are in high school.

Being a high school student during the height of the depression, I can recall no major worries. Finding a way to earn a dollar per day was a major accomplishment or getting a summer job with the Civilian Conservation Corps.

We spend billions in foreign aid to Central and South America and we get tons of narcotics in return.

We can lob shells into Lebanese villages and a home for the mentally ill in Grenada, but narcotic smugglers are provided with the best our country can offer.

The decision for leadership may be yours again after this election,

Mr. Reagan, but your past record and your statements and comments during the two so-called debates do not give me much to hope for.

JOSEPH BIENIECKI

A vote for Allen

To the Editor:

On Nov. 6, Madison County voters will be given an opportunity to "vote their conscience" when they go to the polls to vote. Few would disagree that this year's election presents the voters with a clear choice in determining which direction they want our country's government, as well as our county government, to head.

Over the past four years, our county has had the opportunity to experience the "leadership" and conduct of Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber. During his term in office, Mr. Weber has used every opportunity to sensationalize the cases his office had handled and attempted to take credit for the hard-working investigation efforts of our local and county police agencies.

Mr. Weber's over-zealous actions in handling his cases have caused the Illinois Fifth District Appellate Court to label his conduct as "reprehensible" because of certain out-of-court statements he has made.

What our county needs is an individual who will restore professionalism to the office of Madison County's attorney; someone who will administer to the duties of the office in a fair, yet firm and efficient manner; someone who can commit himself to handling the prosecution of crime in our county without trying to promote himself for future political gain.

I believe Richard "Dick" Allen is such an individual. I intend to vote for Dick Allen for Madison County state's attorney and would urge all voters to do the same.

Surgette's popularity growing

By DEBORAH WILLIAMS

"The outpatient Surgette is wonderful," said Bob York, a resident of Granite City and a recent Surgette patient. "The nurses and doctors don't keep you in the dark about anything. They couldn't have been any nicer to me and my wife."

"What I really liked was the fact that you knew the doctor wasn't going to keep you in the hospital for a day or two. You could go home afterward and relax."

Since its inception in 1978, the Surgette Unit, a one-day surgical unit for minor surgeries at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City, has increased in popularity and inpace.

Patients, accompanied by a friend or relative, are admitted through the SEMC Outpatient Department at least one hour prior to surgery. They are brought to a semi-private room equipped with a free TV and private bath, an iBimney, where they are prepared for surgery by an anesthesiologist.

"It's not only more comfortable for the patient," said Shirley Wendel, supervisor, "but there is also a nice waiting room with a TV, coffee and reading materials where visitors can sit comfortably and wait for their family member or friend to come out of the recovery room."

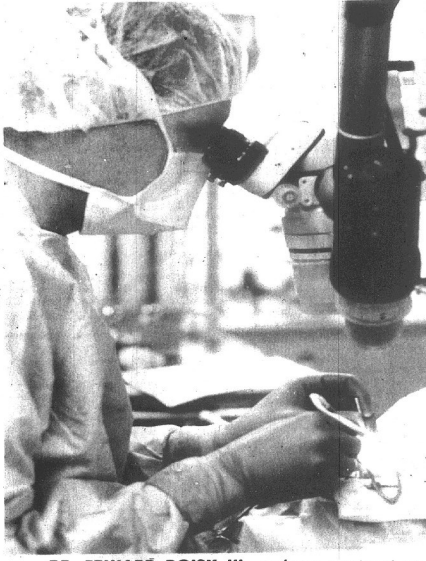

"The new Surgette is more convenient and the decor is much nicer than before," said Gloria Bergfeld, whose family members have been in both the old and new Surgette Unit.

"Before, everyone was in the same room. Now, each patient is given a nicely decorated, semi-private room. When you have nice surroundings, it makes a difference in how you feel," she concluded.

"Many people do not like to stay in the hospital overnight," said Martha Burnett, an operating room Surgette nurse. "They prefer the Surgette Unit over hospitalization because members of their family can be with them, they only miss one day of work or school, and the anxiety level is lessened, especially for children."

Because surgeries performed in an outpatient unit cost less than having the same procedures done on an inpatient basis, insurance companies are encouraging people to use facilities such as Surgette.

In fact, Shirley Wendel says, some companies will pay for certain procedures only if they are performed

DR. EDWARD DOISY III performs a cataract extraction. When this type of operation was performed 10 years ago, the patient was required to stay in a hospital from five to seven days, he reports; now, the procedure is often performed on an outpatient basis in St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Surgette Unit. The operation is nearly painless; frequently, patients do not even need pain-killing medication afterward.

in an outpatient unit.

"With the introduction of DRGs funding in the Medicare program, older patients are more likely to use our Surgette, too," she added.

The number of patients admitted to the Surgette Unit has doubled over the last year. With the latest expansion, the unit is able to care for up to 22 patients each day.

Minor surgeries currently performed in the Surgette Unit include cataracts; D & C's; T & A's; removal of stitches; certain types of ear, nose and throat surgeries; augmentation mammoplasties; cast changes; and the removal of impacted wisdom teeth.

"Most patients stay one-half hour to one hour in the surgery recovery room," said Supervisor Wendel, "and once awake and stable, they are brought back to the Surgette area. There they can rest in their rooms for another hour or two, depending on the type of surgery they've had."

All Surgette patients must have someone accompany them to the medical center who will be responsible for seeing that the patients get home by themselves.

"I can't express how much we appreciate everything these doctors and nurses have done," said Martha York, who had accompanied her husband to the unit. "There was someone, all the time, wanting to do something for you."

"It's great having this available here, at home. I hate the thought of having to drive to St. Louis for the same type of service."

Charge 2 men with cannabis possession

A Madison police officer alleged seeing two men in the process of moving some plants, believed to be cannabis, from the trunk of a parked vehicle in the 1500 block of 12th Street early this week.

Upon seeing the officer, one of the men threw a plant beneath a parked car. Four large cannabis plants were confiscated from the vehicle's trunk and a fifth plant from underneath the car.

Charged with possession of cannabis were Charles Andrew Smith, 19, of 1520 Twelfth St., Madison, and Keith Edward Smith, 21, of 1433 Madison Ave., Granite City. Both were released pending a Nov. 30 appearance in the Granite City court.

CONTRIBUTING TO YOUTH'S DELINQUENCY IS ALLEGED

After halting an auto on Namooki Road at East 23rd Street late last week, an officer alleged there was an open bottle of wine and an unopened wine bottle on the front seat.

The driver, whose name was listed only as Pheng, 24, of St. Louis, was charged with two counts of contributing to the delinquency of a minor when it was alleged a 14-year-old Madison girl and a 16-year-old Granite City girl were passengers in the vehicle.

Both girls were charged with being minors in possession of alcohol and were released to their parents on notices to appear before juvenile authorities.

APARTMENT LOOTED OF FURNITURE, DECORATIONS

Furniture and numerous other items, with an estimated value of $2,000, were removed from the apartment of Sandra Johnson Abney, 1511 Second St., Madison, who reported returning there after a two-day absence to find the place had been looted.

Among the missing items were a couch, love seat, chair, foot stool, a brass bed, mattress and box springs, a washing machine, 35mm camera, two glass end tables, a matching magazine rack and many knickknacks, she said.

MINOR INJURY IN WEST PONTON MISHAP

Ginger A. Oates, 32, of 603 Jefferson Ave., Venice, sustained a minor injury last week, when her car was involved in a collision with another auto operated by J.W. Collier Jennings, 34 Victoria Drive, Ponton Beach, at West Ponton Road and Rode Avenue.

Mrs. Oates, who was entering the thoroughfare from Rode Avenue, was charged with failing to yield the right-of-way.

ADOPT ME. Tiger, a year-old yellow tiger-striped tabby, is hoping that someone will adopt her so she can have a good home-cooked meal. Nolan appeals for passage of swimming pool bond issue

An appeal for Granite City Park District residents to approve a bond issue next Tuesday to replace the 45-year-old swimming pool in Wilson Park was issued Tuesday by David Nolan, director of parks and recreation for the park district.

In asking for passage of the $1.2 million bond issue for the new pool, Nolan noted, "The Granite City Park District has long been a spotlight for the community, bringing this area into the eyes of not just local and state residents, but also the nation. It would be difficult for someone in Granite City to say that the park district, through its programs, activities and facilities, have not touched their lives in some positive manner."

"AS DIRECTOR, I look back during my youthful days and to the days of my predecessors, who grew up in the district with its programs. I think back to the high school athletes who received some of their early training through the park district programs. But I hate to look ahead at Wilson Park and imagine what Wilson Park would be like without a swimming pool," Nolan said.

"Since almost from the day the park district and Wilson Park began, which was back in the early 1920s, there has been a swimming facility in Wilson Park. In 1939, the present pool was built to replace the sand bottom lake. This was done at a time when the area, as was the nation, was at the end of a great depression and moving into a world war. Yet, the residents knew that a pool was needed."

"The Wilson Park Pool has served the community for 45 years and has served it well, giving many individuals, young and old, a place to have fun, meet friends, enjoy family outings and just let tension out at a minimum cost to the residents."

LOCAL CIVIC organizations, such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, American Red Cross and senior citizens, all have benefited by having free swimming sessions.

"The time has come to let this facility be laid to rest and allow a more efficient pool to be built, so that young children can say 40 years from today that they were happy they had a place to go and learn to swim and meet friends and enjoy themselves during the summer," Nolan said.

He added, "Recent park boards, as well as those of the past, have, as economically as possible, tried to facilitate keeping the present pool open, year after year. However, the costs for doing this are getting out of hand. These extra costs each year are draining any possible formation of new recreational programs or just building upon the present ones."

"RESIDENTS have always supported the Granite City Park District whenever they have been asked and I feel this is due to their getting the most possible for their tax dollars, as well as the good management of each dollar."

"For all these reasons and others, I appeal to the Granite City Park District voters to vote 'Yes' in favor of the proposed bond issue to reinforce your faith and trust in the district, its board and its administration. Vote 'Yes' to permit the youth of Granite City a place where they can learn to swim, meet, friends and enjoy themselves. Vote 'Yes' to keep a complete park system."

"I realize that the school system is needing help and I am in favor of their issues, but what do the children have to do in the summer? The park district residents and their children deserve a complete park system and one that offers, as it has in the past, a low-cost swimming facility. The bond issue will cost the average homeowner about $13.75 a year for 10 years."

ALL OF the issues that are confronting the voters on Nov. 6 are important. Please think of the community and those individuals who need this facility during the summer," Nolan said. He concluded, "I appeal to the park residents for continued support of the Granite City Park District and an affirmative vote for the proposed pool bond issue. Reaffirm your pride in the community."

Three share $6.9 million lotto prize

The latest three lotto grand prize winners will each receive 20-year annuities worth $2,322,750, paid at $115,138 a year.

They are Robert Grobely, Decatur, James E. Goeth, Dekalb, and Donald H. Johnson, Davenport, Ia.

Grobely is a 37-year-old tire builder at the Firestone plant in Decatur. He has been playing lotto for the last year, and says he and his wife haven't decided yet about how to use their new-found fortune.

Goeth, 29, is a student at Northern Illinois University. He has been working his way through school as a restaurant cook and waiter. Goeth's only plans so far are to buy a car and then finish up the one year of school remaining to earn his degree.

For the 59-year-old Johnson, winning the lotto grand prize couldn't have come at a better time, because he just retired. Former principal of the Bettendorf Middle School, he said he and his wife, a retired teacher, plan to share the prize money with their three children and one grandchild.

There were 521 lotto players who matched five of the six winning numbers. They will each receive a second prize of $2,164.

In addition, 26,562 people matched four numbers and each will get a third prize of $63.

The Oct. 27 winning numbers were 11, 24, 28, 29, 34 and 38. The guaranteed prize for this Saturday will again be a 20-year annuity worth $6,000,000.

Committee formed to oppose new park pool

A committee of concerned taxpayers and engineers has been formed to oppose the proposed bond issue for a new swimming pool in Wilson Park. Henry Bleniek, a retired engineer and spokesman for the group, said, "It is our purpose to present to the voters an opposing point of view to that of the park board."

"Basically, we feel the only valid reasons for considering a new pool are the inadequacy of the pool to accommodate its patronage or that the pool is structurally unsound. Neither reason applies. The facts are that student age population in the area has declined by 40 percent and pool patronage has declined even more. With regard to the soundness of the pool structure, even the board's own consulting engineer has pronounced it satisfactory."

"To support its case for a new pool, the board estimates the cost of rehabilitating the existing pool at 70 percent of the cost of a new pool. But this estimate includes many expensive changes to make the present pool equivalent to the proposed new pool. They include a stainless steel liner, more deck area, more lockers and other features that are not required and are difficult to justify with the declining patronage," Bleniek said.

"The principle complaints of the board against the existing pool are loss of water through the caulked joints in the pool's bottom and leakage problems in the piping system. Qualified engineering opinion indicates that modern epoxy caulks, properly applied, should make the pool more watertight than when it was built. Leaks in the piping can be remedied by total replacement, if necessary, and would involve only modest expenditures."

"In short, the investment of only a small fraction of the cost of a new pool should provide many more years of trouble-free service," Bleniek said, "and would avoid an unnecessary load on the taxpayers at this critical time."

Other members of the committee against the bond issue are Warren Decatur, Leonard Gertsch, V. A. Harolan and Carl Spiroff. Anyone interested in discussing the issues in more detail may contact any of the committee members.

Circuit Court action slow in September

Madison County Circuit Court Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Portell reports that September was "not a productive month either in filing or terminations" of cases in the Circuit Court, Third Judicial Circuit (Madison and Bond counties) Court.

During September, he notes in his report to the Supreme Court Administrator's Office, 4,459 cases were filed, and 4,245 were terminated by the court.

"The only significant gain was in large jury cases of $15,000, where 30 were filed, 27 transferred to jury demand and 81 terminated, which leaves us with pending cases of 1,795, which is a steady gain for the last three years," Portell states. "This has been a busy division, and one of the leaders in the state in terminating cases in this division."

He adds that there was a loss of currency in almost every category, although the losses were not significant.

"Chief Judge Andreas Mateosian and the Circuit Clerk Willard V. Portell accept this report, but not with much enthusiasm," he concludes.

Following are the numbers of each major type of case filed, terminated and pending at the end of September.

Cases	Filed	Terminated	Pending
Law cases seeking more than $15,000	30	81	1795
Jury	32	14	564
Non-jury	60	67
Law cases seeking $1,000 to $15,000	3	12	310
Jury	3	12	310
Non-jury	48	40	530
Other cases
Chancery	24	36	515
Miscellaneous Remedy	31	57	478
Eminent Domain	2	1	60
Mental Health	32	30	7
Divorce	127	103	1098
Family	98	73	2162
Juvenile	59	35	339
Felony	77	69	283
Misdemeanor	421	326	3448
Small Claims	341	469	2704
Totals	1,602	1,350	14,680

In the traffic division, 2,505 new cases were filed during September and 2,424 were terminated, the report shows.

Of the 69 felony cases heard during the month, 51 were convicted of felonies, four were dismissed or transferred on a motion of the defendant, eight were dismissed or consolidated and six were reduced on a motion for a misdemeanor or a plea was negotiated. Guilty pleas during September included one for a Class X felony, 21 for Class Two felonies, 20 for Class Three felonies and eight for Class Four felonies, with one Class Four felony convicted by a jury. Felony sentences during the month included 17 persons sent to prisons, 22 receiving probation with periodic imprisonment and 12 receiving probation or conditional discharges with other conditions.

GC MAN VICTIM OF THEFT

Gary Wimberly, 18, of 1123 Bissell Ave., Venice, was charged Tuesday with felony theft after an incident reported to Venice police Saturday.

Wimberly is accused of taking a wallet containing $20 and a wallet from Mark Foley of 2597 Lynch Ave., Granite City, while Foley stood behind the Venice Liquor Store at 324 Broadway. Police later arrested Wimberly at the intersection of Klein Avenue and Broadway. Bond has been set at $10,000.

MAN ALLEGES BEING HIT

Edmond L. Branch, 224 Roosevelt Drive, Eagle Park Acres, told Madison police Monday that he was hit on the head with by an unidentified black man at approximately 1 a.m. as Branch was talking to friends in front of a lounge at Second and Jackson streets.

Branch said the man then fired three shots in a southerly direction (not toward Branch) and left. Branch suffered a cut to his left ear, it was noted.

CANNABIS CHARGE FILED

After an officer saw two people in a huddle behind a garage in the 2900 block of Madison Avenue last week, a Mitchell youth, 15, was charged with possession of cannabis when six cigarettes were found in his possession.

Saksa opposing Recorder Lucas

Efficiency and modernization of the Madison County recorder of deeds office are being discussed in detail during the Nov. 6 election campaign.

Opponents are the incumbent, Democrat Ronald "Rink" Lucas, 45, mayor of Maryville and seeking a fourth four-year recorder term, and Republican Robert E. Saksa, 57, Godfrey.

SAKSA CONTENDS Lucas is absent often from his County Courthouse office, and asserts that modernization has been painfully slow. Lucas says the office is self-sustaining through fees and has been handling a record workload well.

The recorder says he fulfills his county duties during the day and handles his mayoral responsibilities on nights and weekends.

Lucas says that, when gone during the day, "I'm away on business—not golf or fishing. County officials are called on to go to a lot of places."

LUCAS CITES a "qualified staff" and insists that it performs with great efficiency even though undermanned. He says other county officials have forced him to operate with a smaller staff than earlier in his tenure.

"Twelve years ago, we were still using an old dioxograph machine. Then we went to microfilming and last year to computerization," the official relates.

"I'm hoping now to get that completely on line, so it can be used as it should be. However, the past year has been exceptionally heavy in the volume of property deeds to be recorded."

"I WILL SEEK federal shared revenue to buy computer software so that property records can be filed under parcel numbers, which are now used by the treasurer and assessment supervisor."

"I will ask for board permission to increase the recording fees by $1 so our files can be modernized." The added revenue would total about $30,000 yearly.

From a tax standpoint, the recorder's office "doesn't cost taxpayers a dime," Lucas emphasizes. He said budgeted costs were $207,230 in 1981 and again in 1982, with income $238,519 and $239,347, respectively.

SAKSA, A COLONEL who retired from the Army after 30 years, 1949-79, has managerial experience related to record files, personnel, purchasing and logistics. He holds a bachelor degree in economics.

Serving in Southeast Asia, Europe and the Far East, he also was a division chief with the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington. Decorated as a war hero, he was a prisoner of war for 32 months during the Korean war.

He regards the recorder office as overstuffed, poorly organized and inefficient in comparison with similar counties.

PROCEDURAL CHANGES would be partly determined by comments and suggestions at a proposed public meeting, but Saksa says computerization would be accelerated.

RONALD LUCAS

The candidate worked in the private sector for five years after completing his military service, and is now fully retired.

Assailing delays, Saksa says the recorder's office was four weeks behind in its work at one point this year.

LUCAS NOTES that three employees had to be laid off due to the county's fiscal crisis, but adds that "we're almost caught up" at present. Two of the three have been rehired.

The incumbent recalls being honored by the National Association of Counties and says his methods have drawn the approval and attention of officials from as far away as Saskatchewan.

"The high quality of education received by my sons from Community School District No. 9 has been the greatest element in their lives. To permit an inferior level of education to be offered to present and future children of this community should be totally unacceptable. I shall vote yes on both school propositions on November 6."

Leo Kenzen, Attorney

"Without passage of the school bond issues we would have to give up too many important programs and the control of our own schools."

Fred Barr, Reeses Drug Stores Corporate Sec.

"I have four granddaughters and I want them to have a good education. Good schools are important for our community."

"Without a sound education system the property values in our area will suffer greatly. The increase in property taxes is small compared to what may happen to the value of homes in the area if the school bond and tax propositions fail."

John Blasingame, President, Granite City Realtors

"I am voting Yes to help repay the taxpayers who voted to do so that I was able to enjoy good schools and good teachers while I attended Granite City schools through grades 6 through high school graduation 1923."

Mrs. Eva Pilhofer Meier

"It is important to vote Yes for both school bond and tax propositions to help re-establish pride in our community."

David Nolan, Director of Parks and Recreation for Granite City Park District

"I have never turned down a school bond or park bond issue in Granite City. Our schools and parks have been and should continue to be the best."

Leonard Davis, Former Mayor Granite City

"We all have to get behind the school bond and tax issues for the sake of our future. Things are beginning to turn around in Granite and keeping an excellent school system is an important part of that mix."

Robert Jones, Owner Basken-Robbins

"Quality public education is essential in today's world. I hope that getting this financial crisis behind us through the passage of both school bond issues will be a giant step towards excellence in education that has been a proud Granite City tradition."

"I have three daughters who received what I feel is an excellent education in the Granite City public schools. I would be remiss in my role as a responsible citizen of this community if I did not want to see that tradition continued for those students in this system now."

Rena Gorzillius

"I do not have any children. However, I am sold on the fact that our kids need a good education. Through political activities I am fighting to pressure a way of life for your children in our community. If we don't save the school system we don't save the city."

Veronica Walters

"The passage of the school bond issues is vital to the future of our community and our children."

Venice 'Crime Blockers' to hear Judge Johnson Saturday

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
of the Press-Record

Circuit Court Judge William E. Johnson will be among the guests at Saturday's meeting of the newly-organized Venice "Crime Blocker" program.

All interested residents are being invited to meet at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Venice Senior Citizens' Community Center, Brown and Klein streets. It was announced at Tuesday night's meeting of the Venice City Council by Carolyn Wilson, a member of the crime-prevention group.

Mrs. Wilson also urged city council members to come to the meeting and learn more about the project and what is being planned.

Venice Police Sergeant Earl Reed has been appointed to work with local residents wishing to become involved in such a program and is providing professional instruction to the group.

Total community involvement is being sought to make the "Crime Blocker" project successful and help stop the recent rash of burglaries in the area, Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols said.

An alert citizenry willing to cooperate with law enforcement officers is essential to making the community a safer place, the mayor said recently.

The "Crime Blocker" program is recognized by authorities as a deterrent to crime by establishing a formal network of citizens to report suspicious or emergency situations to the police.

Participants are assigned identification numbers, which are kept confidential, and emergency calls from a crime blocker are given priority, it was explained.

In other business at the council meeting, Street Superintendent Tom Scaturro invited city officials to attend a social event at 7 p.m. Saturday, sponsored by the Venice Fire Department and honoring Gary R. Wallace, who resigned from the volunteer force.

Wallace, a firefighter in Venice for more than 10 years, was appointed a probationary patrolman in May.

The Rev. John Henry Williams, pastor of New Salem Baptist Church, sought assistance from the council to help provide better lighting adjacent to the church on Klein Street, from where an auto was stolen Sunday night.

The vehicle, a 1982 Oldsmobile belonging to Clyde Perkins of Venice, was recovered Monday in Wellston, Mo., after being stripped by the thieves.

Rev. Williams said church officials are considering hiring a security guard and noted there are three poles in the vicinity without lights.

Speculating that the poles may belong to a railroad, Third Ward Alderman John Ervin said an effort will be made to install additional lighting in that area.

Police Chief Farris Smith reported a check for $2,700 was received from Willard V. Portell, Madison County Circuit Court clerk, representing fines collected in Venice during September.

Arrested in that time period were 112 adults on a total of 141 charges.

Six juveniles, two males and four females, also were arrested.

Reports noted that 97 city traffic charges were filed and 14 state traffic charges. Fifteen citations were issued for violation of state ordinances, Chief Smith said.

Permits were approved for Ernest Davenport, 600 Mercedia Ave., to build a garage at his home, and for Charles Collins to construct a four-room frame addition to his residence at 212 Hampden Ave.

Bids were opened in connection with the sale of surplus street department equipment. Bids were accepted from Leo Bierschwal, 364 Highway 3, who was high bidder at $711, for a Michigan payloador (tractor) and Ronald Farley, who bid $78 for a 1972 Ford pickup.

MAN IN VAN IS CHARGED

Receiving word of a van blocking the roadway at Niedringhaus Avenue and Walnut Street at 11:30 p.m. last week, officers found Harold E. Depp, 44, of 2728 Denver St. asleep or unconscious in it and he was transported by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Alleging they found an open bottle of vodka, officers charged him with transportation of alcohol and illegal parking.

THIEVES HIT MEADOW LANE

The Madison County Sheriff's Department was informed of two thefts along Meadow Lane last week.

The first theft occurred at 7081 Meadow Lane, where the tires, rims and brake assembly was taken from a 1977 Pontiac belonging to Carl Legans. The items are valued at $350.

The same day, a theft of tire lug nuts was reported by Gerald Gurkin, 707 Meadow Lane.

AN OPEN LETTER TO DON WEBER:

Don, the papers report you failed to file a financial disclosure statement, they also report you indicted Jim Barton for not filing on time.

Is failure to file a financial disclosure statement grounds for removal from office? Is it an indictable offense? A crime? Were you required to file such statements? Did you file? Did your friends who were required to file one do so? If you think failure to file is a crime, will you convene a Grand Jury to charge anyone who failed to file? If you think it is not a crime will you dismiss that indictment against Jim Barton? Do you think it is fair that only one person was charged with this offense?

Don, election day is near and I need some answers to these questions right away.

Realtors endorse park pool

The Granite City Board of Realtors, following a presentation by representatives of the Granite City Park District, unanimously agreed to endorse the park board's proposed new swimming pool bond issue.

It was the consensus of the realty board members that the park district's attractive facilities and the extensive programs are prominent attractions to Granite City; that the proposed improvements would further enhance the attractiveness of the city, would provide needed and worthwhile summer recreational activities especially for our children, and would be the most economically feasible long-range approach to the swimming pool problems.

"The 11-cent tax rate increase is viewed by the realtors as an excellent investment in our community and an opportunity to positively impact property values in our city," according to Realtor John Blasingame.

APPEARANCE WARRANT

Larry Caterson, 25, of 2318 August St., was booked on an active warrant alleging failure to appear in court on a disorderly conduct charge, following his arrest at 20th Street and Madison Avenue during the weekend. He posted a $52 cash bond and was released.

Chouteau funds planning for Rapp Road drainage

Chouteau Township trustees voted Monday night to award a contract to Juneau Associates, Inc., not to exceed $14,000, to begin engineering plans and work for ditches and culverts to drain Rapp Road. Work is to begin as soon as possible.

The board discussed all phases of the plan with Edward Juneau, who explained the initial work will be on Rapp Road, which also will help eliminate standing water along Lakeview Drive.

JUNEAU WILL prepare engineering estimates for Long Lake, Long Lake annex (of which Rapp Road is part) and Hills Terrace. Hills Terrace is located in a different area and will not be as easy to drain, since there is no lake nearby into which the water can be emptied, Juneau explained.

The Madison County Community Development office notified the board that the survey results of Lakeview Drive and Rapp Road meet the requirements for Community Development funding and the total allocations for the project will be $48,176.

"We expect that in the spring or early summer, the township can apply for more funds to continue this project," Township Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks explained to the board.

IN OTHER business, Sparks announced the township has received monies from the motor fuel tax fund and taxes to pay off an anticipation warrant in the amount of $25,000.

Also, a letter from Burnham and Flowers informed the board that there were no claims from the township against the Illinois Workmen's Compensation Insurance this year and the board received a dividend amounting to 34 percent return on its premium. The dividend amounted to $1,916.

Town board members approved payment for a portable radio for the police department in the village of South Roxana costing $1,094 to be taken from the Revenue Sharing entitlement.

SPARKS THEN read a letter from George Miller of the Township Officials of Illinois noting the Civil Rights Bill, to which the township had objected, was not passed. Sparks had expressed concern that the bill, if approved, would have demanded a great deal of administrative paperwork by the township.

Approval was granted to Cub Scout Pack 12 to use the township hall for a sleepover, since some of its members are residents of the township.

The supervisor noted that Chouteau Township has been selected as an intake site to accept application from people whose utilities have been shut off and are applying for the resumption of service.

THE TOWNSHIP office will take applications from residents three days a week beginning in December. Several of the township officials

ARREST VIRGINIA MAN ON DISORDERLY CHARGE

Ronald B. Burnstein, 36, of Mountsville, Va., who reported being a member of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness, was charged with disorderly conduct late last week in the Bellemore Village Shopping Center.

Police went to that location after receiving a report of a man soliciting donations for retarded children, but who was not a member of the Knights of Columbus. The latter organization was conducting its annual charity drive that day to aid the retarded.

A woman motorist alleged that Burnstein said he was issuing a citation to her for parking in the lot, but gave her a "Happy Thanksgiving" card instead. He also told the confused woman that he wanted a $3 donation because she was accompanied by a man 15 years older than herself.

A Madison woman motorist alleged the man asked her for $3 to park in the shopping center lot, with the money going to help retarded children. She gave him the money, she said.

At police headquarters, Burnstein told officers he was going to use the donations to "help kids get off drugs."

Simon citing 23 laws enacted

A new tally confirms Democratic Senate nominee Paul Simon as one of Congress' most effective legislators, showing he logged nearly two-dozen victories across a wide range of issues in the just-concluded 98th Congress, the former local state legislator said today.

Twenty-three Simon bills have been enacted or, at minimum, passed the House in the last two years alone, not counting other projects Simon helped with indirectly.

A major election issue, as the challenger sees it, is the effectiveness of Simon, a 10-year House veteran, former lieutenant governor and longtime state legislator, versus the skills of 18-year-Senate incumbent Charles Percy.

"Illinois should be a leader, and we should be using that Senate seat to move vigorously ahead in building a better state and nation," said Simon. "I will be that kind of senator."

Simon's legislative victories in the two-year period range from a law to establish a national center to help missing and exploited children, to his floor management of "the most important civil rights bill in two decades," and several education initiatives, including the Talented Teachers Act to recruit and reward outstanding teachers, steps to move U.S. libraries more rapidly into the "information age," tutoring for illiterate adults, and the Emergency Math, Science and Foreign Language Education Act.

VENICE INVESTIGATING BURGLARY ON CALHOUN

Rodrie Allen of 1037 Calhoun Ave., Venice, reported to police Tuesday that he arrived home from work that morning to find his home burglarized.

The door facing had been kicked off for entry to the house. Missing are a 19-inch color television, a five-inch black and white television, a clock radio, a cordless telephone, a blender, an electric heater and $40 to $50 in change.

COPPER REPORTED STOLEN

Venice Park Superintendent Robert Wigfall reported last week that someone had stolen several pieces of copper from outside the Venice Recreation Center, 323 Broadway. A water faucet was found to have been broken off the building.

Four decades of dedication cited at Victor Koenig testimonial dinner

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

After 40 years dedication to the local Civil Defense program, Victor H. Koenig, Emergency Services and Disaster Agency (ESDA) coordinator for Granite City, officially retired Wednesday.

An open house was conducted Wednesday at the Granite City ESDA offices, located on the lower floor of the Granite City Police Department, 2330 Madison Ave.

KOENIG WAS honored at a surprise testimonial dinner during the weekend in the Granite City Township Center, where more than 100 friends, colleagues and area officials gathered.

Escorted from his home by Mayor Paul Schuler and former Mayor

Leonard R. Davis, the retired coordinator believed he was enroute to an auxiliary police event.

Davis, who served as mayor from 1949 until 1965, first appointed Koenig to the post of Civil Defense director in 1962, following the retirement of the late George Schumacher.

SCHULER HAS reappointed Koenig each year to the same position since becoming mayor in 1973, and the late Donald Partney also chose him as the community's CD director during his tenure as mayor. An honor guard of Granite City Auxiliary Police officers was formed at the door of the township building, where Koenig was greeted by a host of friends.

Mrs. Olga Koenig, recovering at home from a hip fracture, was unable to accompany her husband.

MEMBERS OF the coordinator's family were on hand, however, including his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill (Linda) Koenig and daughters, Jill and Heidi, his daughter, Mrs. Arlene Boner, and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clay (Marilyn) Parker. All are from Granite City.

State Senator Sam Vadala (D-Edwardsville) and State Representative Saul Wolf (D-Granite City) also attended the affair.

State Director Eric Jones of the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency brought greetings from Governor James R. Thompson and spoke about the high quality of leadership and dedication provided by Koenig, not only to his community, but at the state and federal levels.

In his remarks, Jones commended the local ESDA organization and cited Koenig's efforts in helping to establish the new Civil Defense communications and operating center in connection with construction of the present police headquarters. The new structure was dedicated in 1979.

Jones, who has served as state ESDA coordinator since 1973, said he has encountered Mayor Schuler in Washington, D.C., several times in the past.

"He is one of the most aggressive mayors I've ever met when he's looking for federal funds," he commented.

THE ILLINOIS ESDA acts as the conduit for federal emergency funds, which are distributed to help offset a community or region's financial burdens resulting from extensive flooding, which damages storm sewer systems, or property loss caused by disastrous tornadoes.

Director Jones cited Koenig's many contributions to the state ESDA agency and his work with the Illinois Civil Defense Council of which he became a charter member in 1964.

He also offered a lengthy list of congratulatory greetings from coordinators of many counties throughout the state.

AN APPRECIATION plaque from the state agency was presented by Jones to the retiring director, who also received a commemorative wristwatch and a gift check from his colleagues and friends.

Lee Williams of Collinsville, secretary to Bill Elsie, Region II coordinator, read a letter of appreciation to Koenig.

Several other communications were relayed to the honoree during the program, including one from Gilbert J. Leonard of Terre Haute, Ind., a past president of the United States Civil Defense Council.

HAROLD MAYFIELD, who was appointed by Mayor Schuler as the city's new civil defense coordinator last week, addressed the gathering.

He stressed that Koenig's emphasis on training and motivation was the key to the local organization's strength over the years and its ability to keep pace with new demands and programs.

A member of the United States Civil Defense Council since 1961, Koenig was the recipient of the Clayton R. Christopher Memorial Award in 1981.

CONSIDERED the highest award the USDC can bestow, the honor is accorded to an individual for "unselfish devotion and outstanding contributions to Civil Defense."

At the federal level, he won many accolades and awards as USDC National Membership chairman, a post he held for 10 years. He also received two USDC Presidential Citations and a USDC Distin-

INSCRIPTION on a commemorative watch is read by Auxiliary Police Chief John Becker, left, to Victor H. Koenig, retiring Emergency Services and Disaster Agency coordinator, marking 40 years service to the community's Civil Defense program. Formerly auxiliary police chief and assistant CD director, Koenig has served as the local ESDA coordinator since 1962 and in other capacities with the United States Civil Defense Council. AN OPEN LETTER TO DON WEBER:

Don, the papers report you failed to file a financial disclosure statement, they also report you indicted Jim Barton for not filing on time.

Is failure to file a financial disclosure statement grounds for removal from office? Is it an indictable offense? A crime? Were you required to file such statements? Did you file? Did your friends who were required to file one do so? If you think failure to file is a crime, will you convene a Grand Jury to charge anyone who failed to file? If you think it is not a crime will you dismiss that indictment against Jim Barton? Do you think it is fair that only one person was charged with this offense?

We also keep reading in our newspapers that you are unavailable for comment, why?

Don, election day is near and I need some answers to these questions right away.

Sincerely,

Kenneth J. Wirth
Retired Police Lt.

Haine regrets seeking closed board session

By JIM WOODCOCK

The county board member who led the effort last week to fire Supervisor of Assessments James Barton says his resolution would have passed if the matter had been discussed in an open session.

William Haine, Alton, said at least three board members changed their minds during the executive session discussion and voted to retain Barton. The vote to fire Barton was 16-12, short of the required two-thirds majority.

Haine said two weeks ago he thought it was best to discuss the issue of firing Barton in a closed session. He said he did not want the discussion to affect legal proceedings against Barton, under indictment on 14 counts.

Haine now says he made the wrong decision.

"It's sad the voters did not see and hear how some board members came forward, showed moral courage and were willing to make powerful people unhappy for the sake of public good," Haine said.

"I regret calling for the closed session. The people have the right to know," Haine said.

It's Jim Barton's fault we were discussing it and had to call a closed session in the first place. We should have aired it out."

Haine said that during the beginning of the closed session, three board members declared they were in favor of Barton's ouster. Haine said another board member appeared to support his resolution calling for removal from office.

Haine said those members were eventually swayed to oppose the resolution after speeches were made by board members from the Granite City area, where Barton lives.

The innumerate by Barton supporters told these board members that they were merely casting stones against a man who was already on his way out," Haine said.

"Of course, that was clearly not the case. This was a battle waged for high principles. If it was discussed in open session, they wouldn't have gone with Barton."

The board passed a resolution later asking that Barton take a leave of absence without pay until the end of his term, Dec. 31, or until the charges against him are cleared up.

However, that resolution is viewed as advisory only, and county officials say Barton is not willing to resign his post.

County Board Chairman Nelson Hauerhaas said he will not resign until Barton when his term expires Dec. 31.

Barton and three others were indicted by a grand jury Sept. 21. Barton faces 14 charges after he allegedly lowered several assessments for car dealers in exchange for contributions to a legal defense fund involving unrelated charges against him made in 1982.

It was the second time in two years that Barton was indicted by a grand jury on charges related to assessment practices in the county.

"These grand juries are made up of people from all walks of life," Haine said. "That says something about Barton's negligence; it must be fairly serious."

"But Jim cultivates considerable friendships, and that got him the votes he needed from the board — the innumerate board members had to be leaned on. The wouldn't have happened if the inquiry would have been in a public forum."

There is still a possibility that Barton may be ousted from his office before his term expires, Haine said.

A hearing will be held today in the circuit court. Earl Alton on a quo warranto action filed Sept. 21 by special prosecutor Bruce Locher, who led the grand jury that indicted Barton this year.

The action seeks Barton's immediate ouster for failure to file an economic interest statement in 1983. It is the quo warranto proceeding. Barton will have to tell Associate Judge Norman Kander why he failed to file the statement and why he should be allowed to remain in office.

Kander said he would probably make his ruling one week after the hearing.

News notes

Pres. Ronald Reagan is to speak Sunday near the Gateway Arch in St. Louis. A native of Illinois, he also will speak tomorrow on the steps of the Illinois State Capitol in Springfield and Monday in the northwest Chicago suburb of Rosemont.

His opponent in next Tuesday's election, Walter Mondale, will talk at 4:45 p.m. Saturday at St. Clair Square shopping center in Fairview Heights.

Robert Gaffner (R) said Wednesday his election, Cong. Melvin Price (D), is running issue-oriented campaign ads without his own voice being heard at any time, violating a Federal Communications Commission rule. When an announcer is used for a commercial, candidates usually read the tagline at the end: "Paid for by the Committee to Re-elect..."

Two computer terminals to be used in reporting vote totals Nov. 6 were delivered by mistake, not to County Clerk Evelyn Bowles but to the county Republican headquarters in Edwardsville. They had been sent to Chicago for repairs and then were shipped back on a Greyhound bus. Miss Bowles retrieved the terminals, which were still boxed; they are not used to count votes and could not affect vote tallies.

write, "People are all saying they don't want to pay more taxes, but then, if the bond fails and people try to sell their houses, they will find the price has dropped considerably. I think parents should pay more attention to this because, if I was a parent, I wouldn't want my child bused to who knows where. The parents and citizens of the community don't seem to understand how vital this is to the community."

She added, "Everyone says your freshman year is the best year of all. Well, as for this freshman, I'd just like to pass ninth grade and go right on to being a senior, because then I wouldn't have to worry about where I will go to school next year."

Molly Trgovich, also a senior, wrote, "I feel that the passing of the bond issue is very important because it affects the morale and spirit of each individual student. How can we be expected to have pride in our school, and ourselves, if we do not get to enjoy the victory of a state competition? Or even one game, meet, race or set?"

THE NEXT three years were on freshman Tammy Dong's mind when she wrote, "I am concerned about the education that I will be receiving during my next three years. I feel that everyone should vote 'yes' toward the bond issue. Otherwise, many of the school programs may be eliminated or Granite City may not have a school district...What is wrong with paying just a few more cents per day to see that our posterity are well educated and get a good start in life?"

Senior Keith Payne expressed concern that extracurricular activities might be eliminated if the referendum fails. "I think band, athletics, extracurricular activities, plays and the school paper have a big part in your high school years. They have for mine, anyway," he wrote.

Christy White, a senior, sympathizes with taxpayers, and writes, "I have heard from many homeowners that they will not vote for the bond issue because they don't want their taxes to be raised. In a way, I can understand this, and yet, what these people can't seem to realize is that if our school loses all the programs they say we will, people probably won't want to stay around, so the value of property will go down."

"THERE ARE many things that hang on getting this issue passed. Not just losing our sports teams, but everyone should think of the people involved, like coaches who will be out of a job if it fails."

"Also, they should consider the fact that our school could be broken up. I believe I can speak for many students when I say that high school just won't be the same if I can't all stay together. I want to graduate with the people I've gone to school with for 13 years, not a bunch of strangers," Christy wrote.

Increased overcrowding if the bond issue does not pass was a concern of Keri Hannah, a freshman, who wrote, "The schools are already crowded enough. If another district took over, part of their students would probably come here and it would be worse."

AMBER HUNTER, a freshman, said she was concerned that foreign languages may be cut and noted that many colleges require foreign languages for admission.

She summarized the referendums, writing, "This tax levy adds up to about $125 per year (for a home larger than the average home). Many parents would pay 10 times that amount for a good college education. It is a very small price to pay for a young mind to develop."

Alton ends Warriors' season

Alton To Meet St. Joseph's

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor

GRANITE CITY — Somehow the outcome seemed obvious. It didn't take a prophet or an old woman with a crystal ball to figure out that the final score of Tuesday's sectional championship soccer game between Granite City and Alton high schools would be 1-0.

After all, in two previous meetings this year there had been but one goal scored — the first, a 1-0 Warrior victory, the second a 0-0 stalemate.

They were evenly matched. The Warriors were 14-4-3 coming into the game while the Redbirds boasted a 14-5-1 tally. One goal had meant the difference before and it would again. Either way.

BUT THEN that's the way things have been going for both teams. Granite City and Alton, along with Collinsville, had tied for top honors in the Southwestern Conference. It was going to be a dogfight, the kind of battle which just three nights before abruptly ended the Kahoks' season.

But even as apparent as the type of game which was to come, the question still remained as to which team the final tally would favor.

Well, at 7:35, with just 8:25 remaining in the game, Alton's Pat Hoag moved to the head of the class as he provided the answer. Hoag pumped a blistering shot past Granite City's Terry Dutko for the game winner. From his position at the goalmouth, the diving Dutko never stood a chance of making the save.

"THE SHOT came to the right side," Hoag explained after the game. "Joe Fields passed to the right where Joe Bowen headed it back to me. I had the straight-on shot so I took it."

"I can't believe it. This is the biggest thrill of my soccer career. I've been waiting so long to beat Granite City. I've been waiting for this moment for years," Hoag said.

As big a thrill as the victory was for Hoag, Alton Coach Larry Montgomery was happy with the win, but it didn't come as a surprise.

"We set up the ball well all night. We really felt like we could win coming in," Montgomery said. "Granite City's got a heckuva defense, but I felt if we could stop their dead ball plays we could beat them."

"IT'S TOUGH for anyone to win here at their place. We've had our problems and Collinsville has had theirs. But we had a pep assembly at the school today and I've gotta tell you what that meant to these kids," Montgomery said.

"Our sports programs have been so beleaguered with cuts. Cut this cut that, that winning this is such a blessing."

Alton began the game ablaze. The Redbirds rattled off two shots before Jim Chomko finally tested Alton's netminder Andy Scanlan. Chomko's shot, from 20 yards out, came almost 13 minutes into the contest.

CHOMKO's attempt seemed to break the ice, though. It wasn't long after that the Warriors managed another shot and then another. By the end of the first quarter, the Warriors had taken a 3-2 lead in the shot category.

Although they weren't really shots, more like shot opportunities that went awry, the Warriors threatened to score on two more instances late in the first quarter.

Perhaps the best opportunity involved forward Scott Grote. With just over four minutes remaining in the first quarter, Grote dribbled through traffic to what appeared to be the penalty area where he was tripped by Joe Herzon. Referee ruled that Grote had not entered the goal area and was awarded an indirect kick which the Redbirds cleared without much difficulty.

THE OTHER was a crossing shot which the scooped across the front of the goal mouth which went untouched and out of bounds.

The Warriors went on to dominate in the shot category, and by the half enjoyed a 10-4 lead. By the end of final quarter the Warriors opened a six-point advantage, 14-6.

But, as much as the Warriors managed to outshoot the Redbirds in the final stanza, 2 to 4, what counted was Hoag's shot. The one which ultimately decided the game.

"We had some good chances — a break-a-way that we just couldn't put in," Warrior coach Gene Baker explained afterwards. "I think we got a little panicked and tried to do a little too many things."

AS DISAPPOINTED as Baker was about Granite City's defeat, he was glad about one thing: the type of goal which decided the game's outcome.

"It was a good goal, a very positive goal. You've got to give them credit."

As for Baker's decision to go with Dutko, a junior, rather than with three-year starter Jeb Blasingame, Baker stated Dutko's record.

"He's got two shutouts against them. He's a good goalie, and I thought his character fit Alton's team. His (Hoag's) shot was a good one. He or Jeb, for that matter, wouldn't have had much of a chance to stop it," Baker said.

"All we can do now is go up there and root for them to win."

SEASON will play St. Joseph's in game four of the opening round. St. Joseph's defeated Wheaton Central 2-1 to secure the Elk Grove Sectional title. That game begins at 7:30 p.m.

In the first game Friday, host school St. Charles will play New Trier at noon. St. Charles shut out Waterman 4-0 to clinch the West Chicago Sectional, while the Trevars defeated Main-East 2-0 to win the Skokie (Niles West) Sectional. Quincy Notre Dame, one of the five schools to beat Granite City this year, was a 2-0 winner over Springfield High in the Springfield (Southeast) Sectional and Darien (Hinsdale South) was another 2-0 shutout winner over to set the stage for the 2 p.m. matchup with QND.

IN THE third game of the day, Palatine (Fremd) defeated last year's state champion, Glenbrook North, 1-0 to win its own Sectional while Amundson High defeated Chicago Public League rival Faragut High 1-0 to set up the 5:30 p.m. confrontation.

Fremd, incidentally, may be the fiercest team in the field. The Vikings are 22-4 on the season and have outscored their opponents 88-17 and in the process have registered 15 shutouts.

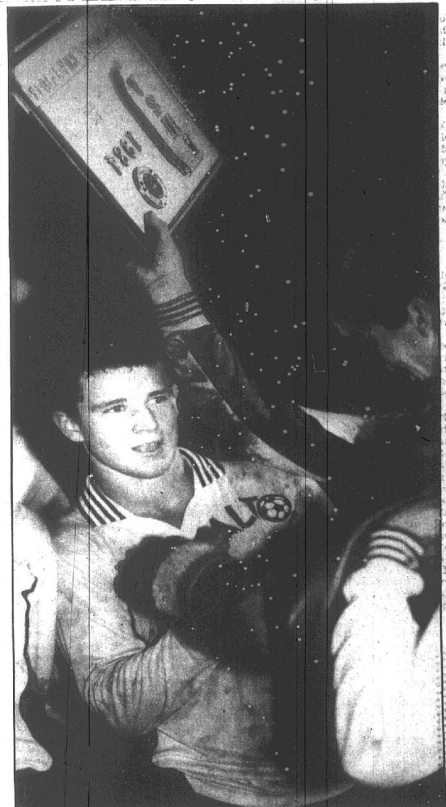

Should the Redbirds advance, they will very likely have to contend with the Vikings in the second round.

Semi-final games will be played on Saturday, Nov. 3, at 9 and 11:30 a.m. The championship game is slated for 7:30 p.m.

SIUE kickers lose to Indiana

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — Jerry Yeagley was cool as the proverbial cucumber Tuesday night at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's Cougar Field following his Hoosiers' 1-0 victory over Coach Bob Guelker's SIUE squad.

The Hoosier kickers' victory over the Cougars led the NCAA Division I winning streak of 42, held jointly by another collegiate powerhouse, St. Louis II.

This made Yeagley happy, no doubt about it. The victory ran the Hoosiers' record to 16-0-1 and appears to make the Yeagley's Hoosiers strong favorites to post their third straight national championship.

In the two schools' long and bitterly-fought series, the Hoosiers now hold a convincing 8-3 edge. The loss dropped the Cougars to a dismal 7-7-3 record. And completely

Lose To Kaskaskia

For Granite City Center spikers winning isn't everything

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Vince Lombardi, you might have had all night long.

The late, great coach of the renowned Green Bay Packers was immortalized for many things, the least of which was the emphasis he placed on winning. "It's the ONLY thing," he would say. You could almost envision him lips curling and smoke coming from the top of his head when he uttered this famous explanation for the success his Packers enjoyed.

Then, it could be pointed out, Vince never took in a Granite City Center Lady Stars volleyball match. BUT, IT'S not that the Lady Stars don't enjoy winning. They do. It just doesn't seem to be their No. 1 priority.

Take their match Monday night against the Kaskaskia Junior College Angels at the Center gym. The Stars lost what was their final regular season match, 15-11, 15-15, 6-15 and 15-15.

The games were well-contested, as the scores indicated. But when the match's final point had been recorded, with Jamie Essenepris on the floor after leaving her feet in an unsuccessful effort to send the ball back toward the Angel side of the floor, there were no tears or agonized expressions. In fact, you had to check the scoreboard to make sure the match was, indeed, over.

THE LOSS completed the Stars' regular season ledger at 6-9. They next will play the Lady Dutchmen of Belleville Area College Friday in the first round of the Sectional tournament at Lewis & Clark. The match begins at 5 p.m.

Whether they win or lose doesn't seem to matter that much, either. What really does matter is that the Stars will be playing.

This marks the second year of the Lady Stars' existence. And Coach Clabbe Briggs commemorated the occasion Monday in a delightful ceremony which was held not before or after the match, but during.

IN BETWEEN the second and third game, Briggs raised her voice and told the approximately 45 fans in attendance that this was a great moment for the team, and wished they would cheer for the one player who has been with the squad both years: Alecia Jones.

Briggs presented Jones with a gift, roses: a red one for Alecia and a white one for Alecia's mother.

Briggs explained later that Jones had lived through much difficulty in playing for the Stars her freshman year. This was because the Lady Stars didn't get their season going until three weeks after everyone else had begun playing. There was also no scholarship. But she stuck with it.

AS CAPTAIN, Jones turned into the Lady Stars' most consistent player. Yes, Alecia said, the flowers were a surprise.

It isn't that the Stars aren't blessed by talented performers. They are. Essenepris is a splendid setter while people such as Kely Anderson, Leticia Miller, Veronica Williams and Shelly Carner are adept hitters. Dotti Smith is a solid performer and Denise Goode's play is also a positive force.

One wonders how it was the Lady Stars didn't defeat Kaskaskia, which upset their season mark to 13-16-1.

The turning point? "There's always a turning point," said Anderson, flashing a big smile.

WHILE Anderson didn't offer where the turning point was, it probably came in the second game. The Lady Stars were up, 13-8. The Angels stormed back to victory. What happened? Too tense? Too nervous? Or the contrary.

"I think we were just too relaxed," said Anderson.

Afterward, Briggs and Anderson seemed to giggle about it. Indeed, it appears the Lady Stars' biggest hindrance to winning consistently is their tendency towards taking things too easy: allowing for too much time to smell the roses, if you will. Vince would have a fit.

THE LADY Stars were bolstered by the presence of Essenepris: no matter what she says.

The contest marked her first match back after an absence of over two weeks. Essenepris has a tendency toward making life difficult for her bones. She severely sprained one of her ankles and aggravated an achilles tendon on her other foot. Last, Thursday, when her injuries had healed sufficiently enough for her to play, Essenepris was sidelined once again. Her car was totaled in a fender bender accident, and she didn't fare too well, either, with a cut to her forehead that required 13 stitches.

SE wondered whether she still adversely affect the outcome Monday. Is she kidding? "We would have been 9 and 6 with her," said Briggs. Then, Essenepris also plans to drive to the Saturday's match against the Lady Dutchmen, much to the concern of her teammates and good friends.

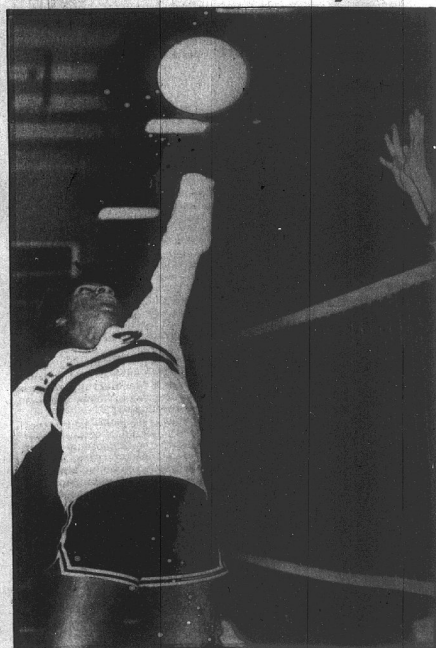

"I know. I know. Everyone's been telling me I've got to take the cab," said Essenepris.

The Lady Stars lost to the Lady Dutchmen earlier this season, but not by much. The score was 15-15, 10-15.

Hopes are high. "With hard practice, we can take the Sectional and the state," said Jones.

Maybe so, probably not. Doesn't matter. The Stars will be playing next year, and with a skillful cast. "We've got strong freshmen," said Briggs.

Vince would smile about that.

DEFLECTION. Granite City Center's Veronica Williams attempts to deflect a spike back to Kaskaskia during Monday night's junior college volleyball game at GCC. The GCC spiker was unsuccessful in the attempt and so were the Stars as they lost to the Angels. Post-season play for GCC begins on Friday.

SIUE to host NCAA-II Great Lakes

Cross Country Reg'l Championships

EDWARDSVILLE — More than 230 runners from a six-state area will be on hand Saturday, Nov. 3, as Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville hosts the 1984 edition of the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional Cross Country Championships. The regional, which will feature an 11-team women's race at 11 a.m. and a 24-team men's race at 11:30 a.m., will serve as the first step to crowning a new NCAA-II national champion.

Three men's teams and one team from the women's race receive automatic berths to the national championships, which will be held Nov. 17 at Jackson College in Jackson, Miss. The Great Lakes Regional has also been awarded two individual berths in the NCAA-II race, which allows not only the top teams but the best individuals in the regional to advance to the national competition.

Expected to make the strongest challenge to California Polytechnic University's 1983 national crown from the Great Lakes will be Southeast Missouri State University. Regarded as the power of the Great Lakes, the Indians feature Mike Vanatta, an NCAA-II steeplechase champion who qualified for the Olympic trial last summer, and Joe Leuchtmann, who holds the world record of the Junior Division in the 15,000 meter run.

Also expected to contend for the regional championship will be Northwest Missouri State University, the defending regional champions from Indiana State University-Evansville, Ashland (Ohio) College, and Ferris (Mich.) State University.

In the women's race, Southeast Missouri State figures to collect its second gold medal, although Ashland College and Central Missouri State University are expected to be among the leaders. The Cougars' hopes for a national bid rest with Randy Kane, who qualified two years ago, Mike Hobbs, a sophomore from O'Fallon, and Rob Hyten, a senior from Edwardsville who has turned in a 28:33 in the 8,000 meter run this season.

Chenevert leaves legacy to family, friends

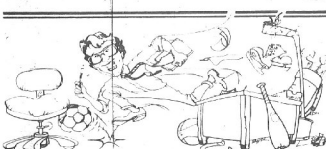

A tragic thing happened last Friday night. While Granite City High School's soccer team was earning a sectional semifinal victory over rival Collinsville, The Warriors may have won the game, but they lost one of their own, Matthew Chenevert.

Chenevert, a manager with last and this year's soccer squad before he resigned so he could help coach a youth team, was fatally injured Friday when he was struck by a car on Illinois Route 3 about 200 feet south of Rock Road.

It was a tragic thing, but if ever anything good has resulted from such a terrible incident this is the case. Chenevert died from his injuries at 3 p.m. Sunday at Cardinal Glennon Hospital.

As he laid in a coma Sunday and his parents contemplated that their 14-year-old son may not be revived from the coma, Mrs. Chenevert noticed the multitude of sickly children in the children's hospital. "There were so many young, deathly sick children there that I couldn't allow Matthew's body to be put in the ground when there was a chance that he may be able to help any of those children. Matthew was such a strong boy — filled with vigor — that it was then that we decided that if his organs could help them we wanted them to," Mrs. Chenevert said.

"It was hard to believe that my Matthew would never wake up, but I've believed in organ transplants

Sports on the Run

By Alan L. Gertsenecker

for a long time. I've got it marked on the back of my drivers' license. I believe it's the best thing a person can do."

I wasn't long before the Matthew Chenevert Legacy began. Not long at all before someone, a blind woman, was the first recipient of two of Chenevert's organs, his eyes.

"They told us when we agreed to the donating that they couldn't tell us who the recipients were, but that they'd tell us when an recipient was found."

"We had no idea that it would happen so fast. The very next day, the woman at Cardinal Glennon called to tell us that a woman who was blind yesterday (can see today because of Matthew's corneas). At least my son's death was not in vain. The result of his death bore some fruit for someone else."

Not only did a woman benefit from Chenevert's organs, but the hospital also removed his bone marrow. In all, about 15 children afflicted with leukemia will have a fighting chance to whip the disease with Chenevert's marrow as added treatment.

An that's not the end of it. Other organs, his heart, his pituitary gland and other vital organs are awaiting transplant. Waiting to better the life of someone else.

Certainly there no benefits when the life of someone so young is abruptly ended, but if this is possible from such a tragedy this is the case.

In addition to the organ recipients, other healthy children may also benefit from Chenevert's untimely death.

Granite City High School and "Friends of Chenevert" are arranging a scholarship — the Matthew Steven Chenevert Memorial Soccer Scholarship — in honor of the boy.

Hope is that enough people will contribute to the scholarship that the interest earned each year can be awarded to an athlete for a soccer scholarship. A perpetual award.

Tuesday night, during the sectional championship game, approximately $500 was collected for the fund, and additional money is expected by the "Friends of Chenevert" organizations.

The Gaming Club, a school organization which Chenevert helped establish this year which plays chess and other board games, donated $300 of the several hundred they raised the day of Chenevert's death to the memorial scholarship.

Which brings me to another point.

I had the pleasure of knowing Chenevert personally. As a manager of the soccer team, Chenevert and I talked from time to time, mostly about soccer. He was a nice likable young man.

But don't take my word for it. Let me tell you about the things he did the day of his death.

All morning he and members of the newly formed GCHS Gaming Club were out soliciting for their new club. In a morning's time they raised $500.

Later that day he and other high school students were campaigning for the passage of the referendum. He devoted his whole day to things that he believed to be good.

That night, before he planned to attend the soccer game, Chenevert and three friends decided to do something from themselves.

A gaming person, he enjoyed the strategy involved in what he called "War Games." As I understand it, it a more sophisticated version of the popular "Capture the Flag" that many of us played when we were kids. It was then, playing this game when Chenevert was struck by the car.

"We have no remorse for the woman who hit Matthew," Mrs. Chenevert said. "It was dark, Matthew was in camouflage. She couldn't have seen him. And, when she learned that Matthew had died she called again to apologize. She broke down on the phone and her mother had to take over for her."

"I'm concerned for her well-being. Her's and the boys who were with Matthew at the time," Mrs. Chenevert said.

"After the funeral we had all his friends over to the house. There must've been 300 kids here on Tuesday. Laughing, Talking. All talking about the times they had with Matthew. I think they'll be alright now. They really needed to get it all out."

And as for Mr. and Mrs. Chenevert?

"We're alright now. But it'll probably hit us later next week when the kids are in school and the house is all empty."

"I'll be alright. I just want people to know my Matthew was a good boy."

Contributions to the Matthew Steven Chenevert Memorial Soccer Scholarship can be made at Granite City First National Bank.

Cougars

eliminated them from any consideration of post-season NCAA tournament play.

Manuel Gorrity, although still going into the game, early took advantage of a Cougar defensive lapse and kicked in the game's only goal at 7:31. He stole a careless SIUE pass and beat the Cougar keeper, Mike England, with ridiculous ease one-on-one.

On the play, however, he tore a muscle in his ankle and had to set the rest of the game out on the bench. Gorrity's goal extended his game scoring streak to 11 games. The Hoosiers' top scorer, however, Paul DiBernardo, wasn't even suited up. He had been ejected from the game Sunday against the Purple Aces of Evansville University.

NCAA rules now mandate that a player ejected from a game cannot play in the following contest.

Yeagley praised Steve Tritsch's play for the Cougars. He had tried all out to sign the Granite City defender fresh out of high school but Steve had opted to play for the Cougars.

The game really wasn't as close as the shots on goal would appear to indicate.

SIUE enjoyed a 26-to-22 advantage in shots, mostly in the first 45 minutes. However, the majority were wild shots and, according to the Indiana University goalie, Bruce Kilough, a freshman from St. Louis Hazelwood Central High, were "mostly desperation efforts. Only one, a big foot effort by Tim Loughman was really threatening. That one missed by no more than an inch."

Yeagley pleaded that his squad had played tired. "I don't like to sound like I'm ailing but we were tired. That Evansville game was played in deep mud and we had to fight back after trailing 0-2 to finally win it 4-2."

Yeagley was asked if he still held any resentment against SIUE for the outcome of 1977 NCAA Midwest regional tournament game.

That game has to be a classic sporting event. Played on a bitterly cold Saturday afternoon at Cougar Field, SIUE finally won it, 1-0, after 8 over-time periods. They went on to finally lose to San Francisco in the NCAA semi-finals, 1-0, in overtime, too.

At that time, Yeagley had vehemently maintained that SIUE had been favored by being allowed to host the game. Then as now, the team with the best record are awarded the home-field advantage.

And, while goaded somewhat to express opinion about that '77 game, Yeagley kept his cool and wouldn't be provoked.

Said Guelker: "All season long it has been the same story: we simply can't finish our chances."

Yeagley started his bedeviling of Guelker while a senior in college. He and his West Chester State University of Pa., teammates met and defeated Guelker and his St. Louis University Bills in the national championship game, 1-0, on a goal by, yes, you guess, none other than Yeagley.

The Cougars have two more games, homecoming this Saturday at 1:30 against Northeast Louisiana University, and the one the road on the 10th against the Falcons of the U.S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Kelahan: ISU's silent leader

NORMAL — Illinois State University soccer player Jim "Kelly" Kelahan doesn't like to talk much. So he lets his play speak for him.

Kelahan has played nearly every minute of every game this season. He scored his first goal and his first assists, opportunities which are rare for a defensive player in the back line. He even has begun to assert himself as a leader of the field.

"I'm certainly not a verbal leader," Kelahan said. "So I'm trying to set an example by the way I play and by going out and always playing my hardest."

Kelahan of Granite City (South) has seen his "hardest" pay off both for him and his team. Kelahan is, reaching towards a personal best in his play this year, while ISU's soccer team has had a winning season.

"This probably is the best season I've ever had," he said. "Not only with scoring points, but as a technical player. I've improved more this season in only a few months than I did the first two years at ISU, thanks to coach (Tim) Carter."

Carter credits Kelahan not only with improving his skills, but also for much of the team's success. "I have seen a tremendous amount of growth in Kelly as a player," Carter said. "He is, without a doubt, the most consistent performer game in and game out. Kelly is a team man — first, last and always."

A lot of teams might see Kelly as a weakness in our team's defense. Then they find out and try to beat him. That's when they find out you can't best Kelly."

He also has set personal goals for next year. "I still have a lot of improving to do," he said. "I want to become an even better technical player."

If Jim Kelahan continues to work as hard, he won't have to worry about talking much next year, either. His hard work and strong determination to succeed will speak for himself.

Wyrostek Kicks Winning FG

GC athletes shine for MacMurray

JACKSONVILLE — The MacMurray College football team is only in its first season. One can only wonder what next year will bring.

The Highlanders are 7-0, and owe much of their success to Granite City. Three of the Highlanders top performers are Granite City High School graduates: outside linebacker John Slecka, fullback John Kindie and Sean Wyrostek.

It was the 5-9, 190-pound Wyrostek who figured most prominently in the Highlanders' latest victory, an 18-17 homecoming triumph over Culver-Stockton Sunday.

WYROSTEK is a second team linebacker. But he is the first string field goal kicker, having won the position in mid-season.

It was Wyrostek who provided the winning margin Sunday with a 20-yard field goal. It was a heart-racing task. The Highlanders trailed 17-15 with 5:32 left to play when Wyrostek booted home the winner.

Kindie and Slecka also have landed significant hands. The 5-9, 170-pound Kindie has rushed for 286 yards on 52 carries, an average of 5.4 yards per rush. He has scored one touchdown.

Slecka, 5-4 and 170 pounds, starts at outside linebacker.

ALTHOUGH MacMurray College is a four-year school, the football team is structured along the lines of a junior college program.

Athletes do not receive scholarships, said the school's sports information director, Jim Murphy. Tuition is based on financial need.

The football Highlanders play their final game of the season Nov. 5 against Rose-Hulman. It is an away game.

Deer group seeks to curb Whitetail-vehicle accidents

Records show that well over 200,000 deer will be killed this year on our nation's highways. These unfortunate accidents result in the loss of deer, and conservationist's estimate that this costs the economy $200 million - $1,116 for each animal killed. In addition, vehicular property damage estimates vary from $250 for $2,000 per accident.

The resulting average cost from the loss of deer and property damage is approximately $200 to $400 million, annually. The possibility of human injury should also be considered. As automobiles become increasingly smaller in size and weight the likelihood of even greater property damage and human injury increases.

Whitetails Unlimited, (WTU) a national non-profit organization dedicated to sound deer management is working towards changing those statistics. Many of WTU's active chapters are working towards financially supporting and installing Swareflex wildlife warning reflectors. The Swareflex reflector originated in Austria and has in some cases reduced vehicular accidents involving deer by 80 percent or more.

The principle behind the system is relatively simple. The headlights of approaching vehicles strike the wildlife reflectors which are installed on both sides of the road. Unnoticeable to the driver, these reflectors beam red lights into the adjoining terrain and an optical warning

GCHS hockey practice Monday

Athletes attending Granite City High School who wish to represent the Warriors on the ice rink this winter have but one pre-season practice remaining before the team is formed.

Following initial practices on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 29 and 30, the Hockey Warriors final pre-season session is slated for Monday, Nov. 5, at the Wilson Park Ice Rink. The practice session will be for one hour, from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Persons seeking further information about practice sessions may call Candy Carden 931-5609.

fence is produced. Any approaching wildlife is alerted. Animals then stop or return to the safety of the countryside.

Immediately after the vehicle has passed, the reflectors become inactive, thereby permitting the animals to cross safely. Unlike fixed fences which interrupt the accustomed roaming paths of wildlife, the optical warning fence of Swareflex wildlife reflectors is activated only when a vehicle approaches.

Whitelites Unlimited has high expectations as it enters its third fiscal year. The organization has recently formed new chapters in Maine, New York, Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin. In addition, WTU has been very actively involved in the past promoting sound deer management programs, educating anti-hunting groups on the need for regulated hunting as an essential management tool plus aiding and supporting research on the study of our ecology and its effects on the white-tailed deer population.

Whitetails Unlimited membership is open to everyone with an active interest in deer. Present support comes from devoted deer hunters, photographers, ecologists and those who simply enjoy the sight of deer in their natural habitat. The problems

Whitetails Unlimited is now seeking and providing solutions to problems facing our deer population. To find out more about America's fastest growing conservation group, please write to: Whitetails Unlimited, P. O. Box 422, Sturgeon Bay, WI 54235.

TWO-YEAR FRIEND. Granite City Center Stars coach, Clabbie Briggs, presented Alesia Jones with two roses during an intermission in Monday night's junior college volleyball game with Kaskaskia College. The Stars' coach made the presentation because Alesia is the Stars' first athlete to play two complete years with the program.

Wrestling Club signup is Nov. 10

The Granite City Wrestling Club will register youths sixth grade and under who wish to participate in its winter wrestling program.

According to club officer Bill Widel, persons may register at the Granite City Center Gymnasium next Saturday, Nov. 10, from 10 a.m. until noon. Annual membership fee is $12.

Widely reminded new registrants that they must submit a birth certificate or copy to prove age when registering. Persons who were members last year need not present proof.

Practices will begin Monday, Nov. 12, at 7 p.m. Youths should come to practice dressed ready to wrestle. Singlets are not necessary. A T-shirt, shorts and tennis shoes are all that are required, Widel said.

GRANITE CITY CENTER ATHLETE of the WEEK

ED FREESMEIER

Ed Freesmeier was named the Granite City Center Athlete of the Week for October 22 through 28. He was cited for his outstanding defensive play this week as he shut down the leading scorer from both Meramec and Johnson County. His defensive work was especially crucial in the Stars' 2-1 victory over Johnson County.

Coach Larry Petri commented, "Ed has made a smooth switch from offense to defense. He has marked the opponent's leading scorer all year, and done a solid job. His work is particularly noteworthy since he has not been 100% healthy since sustaining an ankle injury. His desire to excel is a quality we look for in all our players."

Ed is a 1983 graduate of Rosary High School in St. Louis. He plans to transfer on to a four-year university to continue his education.

Mrs. Bennington attends state BPW conference

Mrs. Joyce Bennington, president of the Granite City Business and Professional Organization and Annelise Smith, a former club president and past state president, attended the legislative conference held in Springfield, Ill., at the Hilton Hotel.

The Illinois Federation of BPW sponsors the conference and it is planned by the state legislative committee with all members in the state invited to discuss current and future legislative issues in the nation, the delegates noted.

Susan Cantania was the keynote speaker at the conference and she commented, "We should continue to support the Equal Rights Amendment and added that she may decide to run again as a Republican legislator."

Other speakers included Edna Schade, special assistant to the governor, and Martin Oberman who spoke on behalf of Paul Simon. Nancy Clark, first state vice president, served as moderator for a panel discussion on the subject of comparable pay for comparable work. Pros and cons of this issue were offered and after the discussion by the panel, it continues to be a controversial subject, the delegates explained.

Those serving as panel members were, Barbara Flynn Currie, state representative, Steve Perckwinckle, legislative director of ASSCMC, and Jackie Heitzman, Illinois Citizen Right to Work committee member.

The weekend was a busy time for BPW members as they also attended the District 14 fall meeting at the VFW Hall in Highland, Ill. Those attending were, Mrs. Bennington, Miss Smith, Pauline Weir, Lili Marzluft and Rosalie Stern.

Janice Sanderland, a native of Jerseyville, Ill., was the guest speaker at the district session. She worked for Sunderland Motor Co. in Jerseyville where she later met and married her husband. From this background the speaker informed the group that she worked 80 hours a week at times and also 14 hours many days. At the present time she heads a mutual corporation and her ambition is to have her own dealership all at the age of 30.

A prize of $25 was awarded to the class of Mrs. Judy Russell who won the membership drive contest.

The president read a letter from the Granite City Board of Education thanking the unit for their one year maintenance agreement on a Gestechner 200 copier, an Apple II computer and printer and a electric thermometer.

DICK ALLEN FOR STATE'S ATTORNEY

Dear Voter:

I seek your vote on November 6th for State's Attorney of Madison County. As a parent, a taxpayer and a lawyer of many years, I appreciate the need for tough, fair and efficient law enforcement. My past experience qualifies me for this important job because I have, in the past, served as an assistant State's Attorney for three State's Attorneys.

I will restore professionalism to the office; with professionalism will come the return of public respect and public confidence that justice will be administered vigorously and fairly in Madison County.

With regard to professionalism, if my opponent is re-elected to the office of State's Attorney of Madison County, it will be the first time in the history of this county or any county in this state that a State's Attorney has been re-elected to office while he was still under indictment which would cause his removal from office. The charge brought against him by the Grand Jury was that he manipulated Grand Juries for his own personal benefit. This is a class 4 felony!

My opponent claims to have reduced the costs of running the State's Attorney's office by his efficient administration of the office. This is not true. In fact, the cost of running the office was $94,000 more in 1983 than in 1980 which was the last year of his predecessor's term (Nick Byron). During all of the time that Weber has been in office, his wife has been on the payroll and she has spent very little time in the office. On June 8, 1984, the payroll record indicated that she received $22,600 per year.

During this year, this county has incurred many legal expenses because of Weber's conduct. He was indicted for Official Misconduct and a special prosecutor had to be employed to handle the case against him. This county has incurred great expense because of this.

Then, too, when Weber was indicted, his personal attorney had many cases on file in this county and a special prosecutor had to be appointed to prosecute the cases that Weber's lawyers were defending at more expense to the taxpayers.

In another case where the Appellate Court termed Weber's conduct "reprehensible" because of certain out of court statements Weber had made, another special prosecutor had to be appointed at more expense to the taxpayers. These special prosecutors have already cost this county more than $45,000 and there is much more to come.

It is time to get this vital office back on the right track. We shall be vigorous, fair and efficient. Please join with us on November 6th by voting for me for your next State's Attorney.

Sincerely,

Dick Allen

Main St., Collinsville, are available by calling 1-61-345-7911.

The Quad-City Chapter is convinced that those who want to kick the smoking habit will find lots of support and fun, too, in observing "The Great American Smokeout," Sister Moser added.

SIUE requests new sprinkler system

Plans to install an automated sprinkler system on all floors of the East St. Louis Center of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have been added to the university's request for capital funding in the Fiscal Year 1986 budget being submitted to the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) for consideration, FY-86 begins July 1, 1985.

The SIUE Board of Trustees granted approval last week to amend the FY-86 capital budget request to include the project as part of the East St. Louis Campus renovation and remodeling work approved by the Board in September for submission to the IBHE. Cost of the additional work is estimated at $250,000 and will raise the total requested funding for East St. Louis remodeling and renovation to $846,800.

THE ADDITION of the work to install a sprinkler system arises from an inspection of the East St. Louis Campus by the state fire marshal this summer and subsequent recommendations resulting from the revised state fire code approved in 1984.

The initial project approved last month would replace the roof and associated coping and would allow repairs to the exterior brick walls of the Broadview Building. In addition, the project would complete remodeling on the building's seventh floor by constructing shower facilities for use by the Katherine Dunham Center for the Performing Arts.

The East St. Louis project received top priority in the board's rankings of SIUE system capital projects approved for consideration by the IBHE.

English skills are taught at BAC

Persons who need to learn to read, write and speak English, can learn these skills at Belleville Area College.

The college has reorganized its English as a Second Language program to give students more time and information during the program.

THE PROGRAM has been expanded to 37 hours from 27 hours. BAC Director of Basic Education Mary Brady explained the changes give students more time to learn valuable information, which instructors had tried to squeeze into the previous program. "We've reconstructed the program to accurately reflect what we are doing," Brady said. "We've taken some longer courses and split them into eight-week segments."

"Basically, we've revamped and updated the program. While the program is language-based, we use consumer skills to teach English. We teach them how to shop and catch a bus."

Belleville Area College's ESL program teaches basic English to over 100 people a year. The classes are free.

The social event will be on Nov. 26 for five members who will progress in the sorority.

Mrs. Vicki Thomas of Troy, Ill., entertained the group. During the business segment members voted to host a Christmas party at Rusty's Restaurant in Edwardsville on Dec. 15 at 7 p.m.

Tentative plans were also made for a potluck dinner on Feb. 11 when the chapter members will crown its sweetheart and they will also observe Mother's Day on May 3.

As a ways and means project the members agreed to sell tickets for a specific prize with the winner to be announced Dec. 3. Voting for the Woman of the Year was conducted and donations for the Statue of Liberty fund was collected.

Refreshments were served after the meeting and the group participated in bobbing for apples as part of the entertainment.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Cookie White of Granite City.

Family of murder victim praises Weber

To the Editor:
On June 21, 1978, I was a victim of a homicide. No, I did not die that day. It was the brutal murder of my sister, Karla Brown, which precipitated my becoming a "victim of crime."

For over five years I suffered the anguish, frustration and helplessness of a victim until Karla's murderer was finally brought to justice.

For this, I owe immeasurable gratitude to the office of State Attorney Don Weber for his unrelenting effort in solving the case and prosecuting the perpetrator.

As a victim in Madison County, I was impressed with how I was treated by the state's attorney's office. During the ordeal of the six-week trial, Mr. Weber and his staff stayed in constant communication with me.

I was advised of every step of the trial, allowed access to materials pertinent to the case, and was consulted on decisions involving the direction of the trial. My input was welcomed and utilized.

Mr. Weber was empathetic with my many emotions and showed genuine concern for my well-being. He made every attempt to make the difficult trial more bearable.

From investigation through sentencing, Mr. Weber and his staff performed with competency and dedication.

I truly appreciate the hard work done by the state's attorney's office and their personal concern for Karla and the rest of us who became victims as a result of her death.

The people of Madison County should consider themselves fortunate that they have Don Weber to serve them.

CREDIT REGISTRARS FOR RECORD VOTER SIGNUP

To the Editor:

The Madison Branch of the NAACP would like to thank all deputy registrars, civic organizations and churches that participated in registering new voters throughout Madison County for a job well done.

A record number of 142,567 voters has been recorded in Madison County with the help of deputy registrars going to the people in shopping malls, free food lines, unemployment offices and door-to-door contact in various housing complexes. This proves that when you go to the people that are in need or down and out, they will respond.

Remember, the ballot is democracy's weapon. It is a crucial tool for insuring meaningful involvement in the nation's political processes. The NAACP encourages you to vote on Nov. 6, 1984.

Believes new pool is important to GC

To the Editor:

On Nov. 6, residents of Granite City are going to make a couple of decisions at the polls which will affect the future of our community in either a positive or negative manner.

On that day, we are being asked to give our schools enough money to keep operating and our Park District the funds necessary to construct a new swimming pool. Both are extremely important to our city and its residents and the outcome of each issue will make public our opinions of the community in which we live and our commitment to its future.

Much has been written regarding the reason for and the importance of the school bond issue and I am convinced that the passage of this item is a must if we are to continue to receive the quality education we have come to expect. The other item, the bond issue for the construction of a new swimming pool, is also vital to the future of Granite City and its park district.

The Granite City Park District has, in its history, come to be known as the best. The number and quality of offered programs are unequalled anywhere. Compared to similar departments in other parts of the state, none have done so much for so many at so little cost to its residents.

An important part of our park district and its impact on the community is the existence of a public swimming pool and its related programs. How many children have learned to swim in the Wilson Park pool? How many seniors have taken advantage of the free swimming sessions offered by the district? How many of us have gone to the pool with friends simply to relax and have a good time?

The swimming pool in Wilson Park has become a landmark in the community and its operation over the past 45 years is something of which we can all be proud. However, a pool does have a life span and ours is no exception. This facility has been nursed into operation more times in the recent past than most of us are aware. It is now time to stop spending big bucks on the patching of walls, decks and pipes. It is time to stop having to refill the pool because the water level has dropped, due to leakage, some eight inches overnight.

The Board of Park Commissioners has given us the opportunity to show our support by voting for a bond issue on the Nov. 6 ballot to construct a new swimming pool in Wilson Park. This new facility would be accessible to the handicapped, make locker and dressing rooms available to ice rink patrons during the winter and keep dollars needed to operate other programs with those other programs. None of these items can be offered by the old pool and its related facilities.

The swimming program sponsored by the Granite City Park District is, to some residents, the only affordable summer recreation in town. It would be a shame to see so many children and adults deprived of an opportunity that most of us have learned to take for granted.

Let's show our pride in Granite City and its park district by voting

YES on Nov. 6 for both the school and the pool bond issues.

BETTER USES FOR FUNDS THAN A NEW WATER SLIDE

To the Editor:

Recently I read in the paper that Venice was having a groundbreaking ceremony for the water slide in Lee Park. Frankly, I couldn't believe my eyes.

There has hardly been a week go by that Venice hasn't had either break-ins or vandalism in the city. Recently, a newspaper ran an article stating that the Conalco plant in Venice needs more patrols due to vandalism. This past summer there were several break-ins in the papers about break-ins and vandalism in the very park they are going to put this water slide in. What has happened to the equipment that was purchased for the park with a grant this past summer?

If all the above questions aren't enough to make you stop and think, how can an area where the majority of the people receive some form of public aid hope to support the expense of a water slide? I hope my federal tax dollars don't end up subsidizing your water slide.

There are many things Venice needs in place of a water slide. It's time to get priorities in order.

By the way, if there is money in Venice to spend, how about repairing the McKinley Bridge? It sure could use it.

AMAZED

Senior citizens, the forgotten class?

To the Editor:

I think the forgotten class of people is the senior citizens.

Years ago I thought by owning a home that later in life would come a day when house payments would not have to be made. But woe—Alas!—and behold!—the property taxes have risen to a point when an average senior citizen pays out over 10 percent of his gross income for these taxes alone.

And now I understand it might be possible they will be raised another $150 to $200 per year. Also maybe another $40 to $50 if a swimming hole is provided also.

Even the food stores give senior citizens 25 cents off this or that, providing they purchase $20 or more.

The congressmen, senators and leading politicians of our country have the following great achievements they have accomplished the last few years:

1. They have legalized the murdering of unborn babies by calling it abortion upon request.
2. They won't permit the Lord's Prayer to be recited in our public schools, however I understand our servicemen fall back on it before going into battle.

3. They broke Ma Bell apart and caused high telephone rates.

4. They give the senior citizens a great 3½ percent increase, while property taxes will eat that up in one gulp.

I am not speaking out for or against the bond issue. I am stating the overlooking of the welfare of senior citizens, which no one really

Says Madison's tax cuts too little

To the Editor:

How do you like that? For over three years the Madison city administration has been bleeding the people with their utility tax, and now, just before election time, they talk about a skimpy reduction and act like they are really concerned about Madison taxpayers.

At last week's city council meeting, they talked about eliminating the utility tax on telephones and water, but keeping it on gas and electric bills. Any citizen knows that their power bills are much higher than their telephone and water bills, so the city administration is giving the taxpayers carers about.

I wonder how long it will be before one of our leaders decides to try to pass a bill making it illegal to sell medicine to anyone over 70 years old.

I pray our schools continue in great style, but I also pray for my welfare as others pray for theirs.

Draft program would double U.S. deficit

To the Editor:

My Democratic opponent's new plan to draft all college-age men and women would cost $155 billion per year.

Where would we get the money to finance such a gigantic new program?

If new taxes were applied, it would mean $2,000 added to the tax bill of the average Illinois family.

At a time when all responsible Americans are looking to balance a badly bloated budget, Paul Simon comes up with ever more expensive and abusive plans.

Aside from the issue of cost, involuntary servitude is an affront to the dignity of mankind, whether it be temporary or lifelong.

The $155 billion annual cost estimate is based on a two-year program. To finance the program "with taxes would actually imp. v somewhat more than $2,000 for each of the 70 million American families."

Outlines way to increase Midwest exports

To the Editor:

The St. Lawrence Seaway, which is celebrating its 25th anniversary, is an important and integral part of our total national water transportation system.

For the past quarter century, farmers and manufacturers throughout the Midwest have depended on economical water transportation to ship commodities to international markets.

This year, the Seaway achieved a significant milestone, having handled one billion tons of cargoes since 1959, with an overall value of over $200 billion.

The Seaway is vital to Illinois and the nation as part of its total water transportation system.

Yet, since its opening, the Seaway has been the only deep-draft water transportation facility constructed by the federal government within the continental U.S., that is required to be self-supporting from the standpoint of operations and maintenance.

In December, 1982, Congress acted to cancel the Seaway's construction debt, which eliminated the need for massive toll increases by 1986.

But the remaining tolls that shippers and vessel operators currently are required to pay for use of the Seaway stand as a major obstacle to Midwest farmers and manufacturers who want to ship their products abroad.

I recently drafted legislation intended to address this problem and allow the Seaway to act as a more economical avenue for trade.

Specifically, my legislation would:

- 1) Authorize appropriations of funds to the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. to cover annual costs of operations, and maintenance, $9.2 million.

2) Authorize negotiations with the government of Canada for the purpose of reducing or eliminating Seaway tolls.

3) Direct that tolls paid by vessels using the seaway and calling at U.S. ports on the Great Lakes be considered credits against any user charges.

It is ironic, at a time when the U.S. is facing a record trade imbalance and a record deficit in its balance of payments, that users of the Seaway are burdened by tolls, which discourage shippers from using the Seaway because of the price sensitivity of some commodities to transportation costs.

The U.S. dominance in world trade of agricultural products has been withering like corn in a summer drought.

Since the late 1970s, the U.S. share of the world wheat market has shriveled from 45 to 36 percent.

Since 1980, the U.S. share of exported coarse grains, such as corn, has fallen from 72 to 60 percent.

Of additional concern has been the decline of exports of capital goods, which are generally considered to be the driving force of economic recovery and expansion.

Clearly, steps need to be taken now to reverse these trends, and making our exports more competitive is one important way to accomplish this.

Congress must now take steps to ensure the competitive position of our grain exports for future years' harvests.

We must take steps to make Midwest producers of farm implements and machinery better able to compete with those foreign companies that are rapidly cutting into our share of the world market.

I will pursue these goals vigorously in the 99th Congress, which convenes in January.

URGES PRO-LIFE VOTE FOR PRESIDENT REAGAN

To the Editor:

The upcoming presidential election will determine the future of our country. It will shape the lives of us living and those unborn yet unborn.

The choice should be clear to those who hold pro-life convictions. President Reagan has given his support to the pro-life movement during the past four years. Mr. Mondale says that abortions are inevitable, so they should continue to be legal under the law.

People accuse pro-lifers of being single-issue voters, but what issue could be more important than life. If the right to life isn't guaranteed by our Constitution, then all other rights are threatened also.

Only if President Reagan is re-elected, will we see a chance for the right to life to be guaranteed to all people, especially the unborn.

Jr. Milton vs. write-in candidate

Herbert "Junior" Milton, Democrat, is running for re-election next Tuesday as the Madison County Board member from District 2.

No Republican is shown on the ballot, but there is a write-in candidate by Tom Nash.

NASH BELIEVES Milton should not have voted last month against firing Supervisor of Assessments James Barton. Milton responds that the official has never been convicted, although indicted, and—both technically and morally—must be considered innocent unless proven otherwise.

Associate Judge Norman Kinder has just dismissed an ouster suit filed against Barton by Special Prosecutor Bruce Locher. Barton is leaving the assessment position Dec. 31 when his current four-year appointment expires.

Locher cited failure to file an economic interest statement, a requirement that many other Madison County officials also failed to meet on time. Kinder in a ruling filed Tuesday said Locher had no authority to file the civil suit. The judge added that such a suit during criminal prosecution would violate Barton's rights.

MILTON SAYS he voted properly on the issue, which he feels reached the County Board prematurely. The ouster motion failed.

As chairman of the board's Negotiations Committee, Milton has been busy this year. He is on disability leave from Granite City Steel.

Two series of county employee negotiations are in progress currently, including talks in which Milton participated yesterday. He also is chairman of the Buildings Committee.

A resident of 2319 Washington Ave., Milton 53, is married and has five children. He is the Democratic committeeman of Precinct Four.

MILTON IN NOVEMBER 1982 was elected as chairman of the Illinois Association of County Board Members, after serving as its vice chairman. The group is part of the Illinois Association of County Officials.

He was elected to the County Board in 1972 and re-elected in 1976, 1980 and, due to redistricting, in 1982. He has resided in the same district for 36 years.

His memberships include Masonic Lodge 835, Armvets Post 51 and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300.

THROUGH HIS BOARD and committee efforts, he has been active in expanding county office space, creating courtyards, modernizing the county nursing home, improving county roads, enhancing law enforcement, establishing new jail facilities, increasing services to senior citizens, and encouraging development of homes and recreation areas.

Nash, 32, resides at 2222 Illinois Ave. with his wife, Denise. His candidacy has the backing of the Republican Party.

He has experience as the Republican committeeman of Granite City Precinct Eight.

HERBERT MILTON

TOM NASH

NASH IS CONTACTING as many voters as possible this fall in the district's nine precincts.

A local resident for six years, he feels it is time for a change in District 22 representation and says that he would serve diligently.

Nash is a member of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce. He is in food sales work.

DUV Tent 92 donates to statue renovation

Mrs. Arline Fox, patriotic instructor for Daughters of Union Veterans, Tent 92, read an article entitled, "Liberty Torch Still French" at a luncheon meeting of organization.

The newspaper item noted the new torch of freedom will be constructed by French artisans as was the original a century ago, the Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation announces.

Work is to begin this month with 10 French artisans who are making the statue's new stainless steel frame, the foundation added.

The original torch, severely corroded, was removed on the Fourth of July and the new torch is to be completed in 14 months as part of a $230 million overhaul of the statue.

Members met at Ervay's Restaurant for lunch at tables decorated in a Halloween motif planned by Mrs. Louise Thompson, hostess for the session.

President Bessie Seibold opened the meeting and prayer was offered by Chaplain Maud Lewis. All repeated the Pledge to the Flag.

Joyce Moran, junior vice president, read the records and Mrs. Thompson gave the treasurer's report.

All agreed to send a donation to the renovation of the Statue of Liberty and then signed a greeting card for Vi Kassabum.

The next meeting on Nov. 29 will also be held at Ervay's, the president said.

Games were played during the afternoon with the special award going to Mrs. Seibold. Others attending were Leitha Gitchoff, Verna Michel, Vivian Rowden, Enid Bolin and Peggy Gibbons.

Old Six Mile museum dedication Sunday

After many years of planning and organization the Old Six Mile Historical Society will officially dedicate its museum at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 4, at the former Zippel residence, 3279 Maryville Road at Stratford and Emert avenues.

Guest speaker for the afternoon will be Randall Robertson, a Granite City attorney. A reception is planned after the dedication ceremony.

Originally built in 1837 by William Emmert, the house was recently purchased by the organization for its history as one of the oldest homes in this area.

William Emmert was born in Tennessee on April 24, 1817. His father, John Emmert, died when he was a very small boy and, at that time, his mother, Christina, and her five small children emigrated from Tennessee with little more than the team and wagon on which they traveled.

They settled in Six Mile where Christina met and married Nathan Carpenter, owner of a horse mill near the present Six Mile House.

In March 1838, William married

'Operation Snowball' retreat offered to teens

Citizens for Chemical Free Youth are sponsoring "Operation Snowball" for area high school students, according to a group spokesman.

The day-long retreat will be conducted from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 17, at the Alton High School gymnasium.

The retreat is geared to offer teens information on avoiding the problems of drug and alcohol abuse, it was noted. Area teens can register for the free program through their high school offices. Deadline for registration is Thursday, Nov. 8.

Miss Susan Stewart and they began their married life in two rooms on a farm of 460 acres in Section 9, Township 3, Range 9 (now 3279 Maryville Road).

They were the parents of four children, one son and three daughters. Mrs. Emmert died in 1867 and, soon after, Mr. Emmert married Marie Snyder and, at this time, added four more rooms to his home. By this time, the Emmerts had a family of nine children.

Mr. Emmert owned several famous horses and would enter the animals in races at two area tracks, one located near the Belleme Village site and the other near the home of Samuel Judy along the bluffs.

Crowds of people attended the racers and bets would amount to a thousand dollars or more which was considered a large amount of money in those days.

Mr. Emmert was always ready to test the speed of his horses with anyone who was able to bet with the "shakels."

According to historical data, the Reed Zippel family purchased the home and ground in the 1890s.

Emert Avenue near the house was named for the original owner, although the name is spelled differently now.

Anyone interested in attending the dedication may park at Parkview Elementary School or Bethel Evangelical Free Church, according to a spokesman for the historical society.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS REGARDING THE PUNCH CARD SYSTEM OF VOTING

1. CAN I VOTE A STRAIGHT BALLOT?

YES. To vote a straight party ballot, punch the number beside the name of the party of your choice. A straight party vote casts a vote for every candidate on that Party ballot.

2. CAN I SPLIT MY BALLOT?

YES. You may split your ballot by skipping the straight party page and voting for individual candidates. Just punch the number along side the name of the candidate for whom you wish to vote.

You may also split your ballot by punching a straight party number and then voting for individual candidates on the opposite party.

3. CAN I CAST A WRITE-IN VOTE?

YES. A space is provided on the FLAP OF THE BALLOT ENVELOPE for casting a write-in vote. In executing a valid write-in vote, you must indicate the office for which the vote is being cast. Also, you must make a square, place an "X" in the square and print or write the name of the person for whom you wish to cast the vote. The square with the "X" must be placed to the left of the name of the write-in candidate.

4. WHAT DO I DO IF I MAKE A MISTAKE OR SPOIL MY BALLOT DURING VOTING?

Remove the spoiled ballot from the voting device, take it to the Judges of Election and ask for a new ballot. You must relinquish the spoiled ballot in the ballot envelope. (Since there will be many new voters this election and also many who have not previously voted the punch card ballot, please do not be embarrassed if you make a mistake and have to ask for a new ballot.)

5. WILL I HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO BECOME ACQUAINTED WITH THE SYSTEM BEFORE I ENTER THE VOTING BOOTH?

YES. Every voter must be given the opportunity to vote on a demonstration unit prior to entering the booth to cast their ballot.

6. THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT, JUDICIAL RETENTION CANDIDATES AND REFERENDA MUST BE VOTED UPON INDIVIDUALLY. A STRAIGHT PARTY BALLOT WILL NOT CAST A VOTE FOR THESE CANDIDATES AND PROPOSITIONS.
